REGULATION RESPECTING COMMUNICATION WITH BENEFICIAL OWNERS OF SECURITIES OF A REPORTING ISSUER - EXPLANATIONS

Based on your instructions, the securities in your account with National Bank Direct Brokerage, a division of National Bank Financial Inc. (hereinafter the "Broker"), are not registered in your name but in the name of the Broker or the name of another person or company holding your securities on behalf of the Broker. The issuers of the securities in your account may not know the identity of the beneficial owner of these securities. Under securities legislation, the Broker is required to obtain your instructions concerning various matters relating to the securities held in your account.

Disclosure of information

Securities legislation permits reporting issuers and other persons or companies to send materials related to the affairs of the reporting issuer directly to beneficial owners of the reporting issuer's securities if the beneficial owner consents to having information about him disclosed to the reporting issuer or other persons or companies. The "Disclosure of Information" section allows you to inform the Broker that you DO NOT CONSENT to it disclosing to the reporting issuer or other persons or companies your beneficial ownership information, consisting of your name, mailing address, e-mail address, securities holdings and preferred language of communication. Securities legislation restricts the use of your beneficial ownership information to matters relating to the affairs of the reporting issuer.

If you CONSENT to the disclosure of your beneficial ownership information, please tick the "Yes" box in the "Disclosure of Information" section. By doing so, you will not be charged any costs associated with sending securityholder materials to you. If you DO NOT CONSENT to the disclosure of your beneficial ownership information, please tick the "No" box in this same section. By doing so, all materials to be delivered to you as beneficial owner of securities will be sent by the Broker, at your expense.

Receipt of securityholder materials

For securities held in your account, you are entitled to receive proxy-related materials sent by reporting issuers to the registered holders of their securities in connection with meetings of such securityholders. Among other things, this enables you to receive the necessary information to allow you to have your securities voted in accordance with your instructions at a meeting of securityholders.

In addition, reporting issuers may choose to send other securityholder materials to beneficial owners, even though they are not required to do so. Securities legislation allows you to decline to receive the following three types of securityholder materials:

- a) proxy-related materials, including annual reports and financial statements, that are sent in connection with a securityholder meeting;
- b) annual reports and financial statements that are not part of proxy-related materials; and
- c) materials that a reporting issuer or other person or company sends to securityholders that are not required by corporate or securities legislation to be sent to registered securityholders.

The "Receipt of securityholder materials" section allows you to receive all materials sent to beneficial owners of securities, to receive only proxy-related materials in connection with securityholder meetings, or to decline to receive the materials intended for securityholders.

If you consent to receive ALL materials that are sent to beneficial owners of securities, please indicate your choice by ticking the "All materials intended for securityholders" box. If you would like only proxy-related materials in connection with securityholder meetings and not the other materials mentioned above, please tick the second box. Lastly, if you do not wish to receive materials intended for securityholders, please indicate your choice by ticking the third box.

Note: Even if you do not consent to receive the three types of materials referred to above, a reporting issuer or other person or company is entitled to deliver these materials to you, at their expense. These materials would be delivered to you by way of the Broker if you did not consent to the disclosure of your beneficial ownership information to reporting issuers.

Communication of information and receipt of documents by shareholders of European or foreign companies

As required by Directive (EU) 2017/828 as regards the encouragement of long-term shareholder engagement and the related Commission Implementation Regulation (EU) 2018/1212 and national laws implementing those requirements (together, "SRDII"), a company with registered office(s) in the European Union which is admitted to trading on a European stock exchange (a "European Issuer") could request the Dealer to disclose information about its shareholders. If you hold securities of a European Issuer (the "European Securities"), we may therefore be required to disclose to such European Issuer information about you such as your name, address(es) and details of the European Securities you hold with it. The Dealer may also disclose information to a foreign issuer if required to do so by applicable laws.

In addition, and in accordance with what is indicated in the Communication with beneficial shareholders section of your account opening form, the Dealer may provide you with information relating to shareholders' meetings of European Issuers in order to enable you to exercise the rights flowing from your European Securities.

To the extent a voting confirmation or voting receipt is made available in connection with an exercise of shareholder rights for the European Securities held in your account, you nominate the Dealer to receive such confirmation and/or receipt on your behalf. The Dealer will provide such confirmation and/or receipt to you upon request.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Dealer will have no liability to you for actions taken, or not taken, by the Dealer or its agents in good faith and intended to comply with any provision of SRDII.

Language of communication

This section allows you to inform the Broker of your preferred language of communication (English or French). You will receive materials in your preferred language of communication if they are available in that language.

5.1. Role: The Client acknowledges that he has the required knowledge, necessary experience and sufficient financial capacity to make investment decisions without advice from the Broker.

5.2. Liability: The Broker shall not assume any liability for the Client's investment decisions. The Client acknowledges, consequently, that he is solely liable for the financial consequences of his investment decisions.

6. JOINT ACCOUNT6.1. Joint Account

Each of the Clients acting alone shall be authorized and empowered to deal in general with the Broker, with the same authority as if he were the sole party with interests in the Account, without the Broker having to notify the other Client. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, either of the Clients may individually:

- I) perform all trading in the Account, including, without limiting the scope of the foregoing, buy, sell, accept, receive, assign, deliver, endorse, transfer, convey or otherwise trade all the securities registered in the name of either of the clients, which are currently assigned to them or which may be assigned to them, and use any free credit balance deposited and registered in the Account;
- II) without any restrictions as to the beneficiary, sign, draw, issue, accept, authorize and endorse any cheque, promissory note, letter of exchange, money order, bank draft, payment order, transfer, electronic funds transfer or other instrument, as well as deposit any amount of money into the Account or make any withdrawal therefrom;
- III) have forwarded to the Broker and receive from the same any request, notice, confirmation, statement of account or communication of any kind with respect to the Account;
- IV) sign, ratify, amend and rescind any agreement regarding the administration of the Account.

If a payment or delivery in favour of either of the clients is made further to the request of one of the clients, the Broker shall not be bound to inquire about the purpose of such request, nor its relevance, and the Broker may not be held liable for the consequences arising therefrom.

In the event of the death of a Client, the surviving Client shall notify the Broker forthwith in writing. The death of a Client shall affect the rights and obligations of the other because such rights and obligations are subject to the legislation applicable to each of the provinces in Canada where the Broker carries on its business. The Broker may, before or after the receipt of such notice, take the appropriate measures to protect its interests.

In the event of the death of a Client, the Broker may, where applicable, proceed to close the Account. The free credit balances and the Securities held in the Account shall then be remitted, transferred or delivered to either of the Clients or to the estate of the deceased Client.

6.2. Joint Account with Right of Survivorship (except Quebec)

Each of the clients acting alone shall be authorized and empowered to deal in general with the Broker, with the same authority as if he were the sole party with interests in the Account, without the Broker having to notify the other Client. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, either of the clients may individually:

- I) perform all trading in the Account, including, without limiting the scope of the foregoing, buy, sell, accept, receive, assign, deliver, endorse, transfer, convey or otherwise trade all the securities registered in the name of either of the Clients, which are currently assigned to them or which may be assigned to them and use any free credit balance deposited and registered in the Account;
- II) without any restrictions as to the beneficiary, sign, draw, issue, accept, authorize and endorse any cheque, promissory note, letter of exchange, money order, bank draft, payment order, transfer, electronic funds transfer or other instrument, as well as deposit any amount of money into the Account or make any withdrawal therefrom;
- III) have forwarded to the Broker, and receive from the same any request, notice, confirmation, statement of account or communication of any kind with respect to the Account;
- IV) sign, ratify, amend and rescind any agreement regarding the administration of the Account.

If a payment or delivery in favour of either of the clients is made further to the request of one of the clients, the Broker shall not be bound to inquire about the purpose of such request, nor its relevance, and the Broker may not be held liable for the consequences arising therefrom.

In the event of the death of a Client, the surviving Client shall notify the Broker forthwith in writing. It is the express intention of each of the clients to operate the Joint Account as joint holders with right of survivorship and not as owners in common. Each of the clients shall therefore enjoy a right of survivorship with respect to the Securities and free credit balances deposited in the Joint Account.

The death of a Client shall not prevent the surviving Client from giving Transaction Orders.

In the event of the death of a Client, the entire participation in the Account shall be assigned in favour of the surviving Client pursuant to the existing terms and conditions. The Account shall then become the exclusive property of the surviving spouse, and the estate of the deceased spouse shall not be entitled to assert any claims against the Broker regarding such assets.

7. CHECKING SUITABILITY

The Client acknowledges that he has not received any assistance from the Broker or its representatives to determine his investment needs and to establish his investment objectives.

The Client acknowledges and understands that the Broker shall not provide any investment advice or any recommendation and that the Broker shall not check the Suitability of the Transaction Orders placed by the Client. The Broker shall not assume any liability for the appropriateness of the Client's investment decisions or transactions. The Client acknowledges that he shall be liable for his investment decisions and, consequently, for any possible financial consequences resulting therefrom.

The Client acknowledges that the Broker shall have the discretionary right to review, reject, change or cancel any transaction before transmitting it to the market concerned.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Broker reserves the right to check, at any time, the Suitability of any Transaction Order placed by the Client, and to do so without prior notice. Furthermore, the Broker reserves the right to check the following transactions:

- I) Buy transactions for a stock priced lower than the minimum trading price deemed acceptable by the Broker;
- II) Transactions for an amount higher than the amount estimated as being the norm deemed to be acceptable by the Broker;
- III) The transmission, on a day-to-day basis, of a higher number of transactions than the norm deemed acceptable by the Broker;
- IV) Transactions failing to comply with the Broker's credit rules in force.

8. INSTRUCTIONS

8.1. Instructions: The Broker shall be authorized to act on the basis of any instruction or Transaction Order given by the Client or by any duly authorized person. The instructions and Transaction Orders transmitted and received by an automated transaction execution system, including telephone systems, personal computers and the Internet, shall be deemed to be accurate, and the Broker may not be held liable for having acted pursuant thereto. The Client undertakes to indemnify and hold harmless the Broker from and against any losses, damages and expenses that it may incur pursuant to the execution of such instructions or Transaction Orders.

8.2. Recording of Telephone Conversations: The Client agrees to the recording of all telephone conversations between him and the Broker. The Client agrees that the contents of such recording may be used for the purposes of evidence.

8.3. Use of the Internet: The Client using the Internet for trading agrees that the communications between him and the Broker may be made via the Internet, where applicable.

9. SECURITIES CERTIFICATES

9.1. Registration: The Client's Securities may, at the Broker's discretion, be registered in the name of the Broker or of an agent or representative designated by the Broker. The Client acknowledges that the Securities may be represented by certificates or documents other than those which evidenced the same when the Securities were acquired.

9.2. Custody of Securities: The Broker shall be the custodian of the Securities of the Client. The Broker may not use, in the course of its business operations, the Securities whose purchase price was paid in full and which are the exclusive property of the Client.

9.3. Custody of Securities Entrusted to a Third Party: The Client authorizes the Broker to entrust the custody of his Securities and of any income generated thereby and all proceeds from the disposition thereof to any investment dealer or financial institution deemed acceptable by the Broker, to The Canadian Depository for Securities Limited or to any other custodian carrying out similar functions.

10. INCOME AND CREDIT BALANCES

- 10.1. Income: Any interest, dividend, net proceeds from disposition and any other amount received for the Securities of the Client shall be credited by the Broker to the Client's Account.
- 10.2. Credit Balances: Any credit balance in the Account shall bear interest at the rate then in effect at the Broker.
- 10.3. Free Credit Balances: Any free credit balance in the Account shall be payable on demand. It shall be recorded in the books of the Broker on a regular basis, shall not be segregated and may be used by the Broker in the course of its business operations within the limits prescribed by regulatory authorities.

11. CONFIRMATION AND STATEMENT OF ACCOUNT

- 11.1. Transaction Confirmation: Whenever the Broker sends a Transaction Confirmation to the Client, the latter undertakes to verify the accuracy thereof and to notify the Broker of any error or omission in the contents within three (3) days of the receipt thereof, at the end of which the Client shall have agreed to and definitively approved the contents of the Transaction Confirmation, which shall then be considered accurate and may no longer be subject to any dispute.
- 11.2. Statement of Account: Whenever the Broker sends a statement of account to the Client, the latter undertakes to verify the accuracy thereof and to notify the Broker of any error or omission in the contents within thirty (30) days of the receipt thereof. Except with regard to the contents of Transaction Confirmations approved by the Client under this Agreement, the Client shall agree to and definitively approve, at the expiry of the period of thirty (30) days, the contents of the statement of account, which shall then be considered accurate and may no longer be subject to any dispute.
- 11.3. Expiry of Time Periods: At the expiry of the time periods mentioned in Sections 11.1 and 11.2, the Client acknowledges that he may no longer exercise against the Broker or any other custodian of the Securities any recourse directly or indirectly in connection with the subject matter of the Transaction Confirmation and the statement of account.

12. SHORT SALES

Except in a margin account specifically opened for such purpose, the Client undertakes to refrain from giving any order to sell a Security that he does not own or that he cannot deliver in an acceptable and negotiable form by the settlement date.

13. LIQUIDITY OF SECURITIES

The Client warrants that any Securities delivered by him or for his account may be sold freely and may be transferred to the books of the issuer without any need to obtain any authorization whatsoever or any order to file a declaration or to give notice.

14. SETTLEMENT OF TRANSACTIONS

The Client shall pay the Broker for all Securities purchased on his behalf and to deliver to the Broker all Securities sold on his behalf which are not already in the custody of the Broker or any other custodian, no later than on the scheduled settlement date of the Transaction.

If the Client fails to make payment or to deliver the Securities, the Broker may, at its discretion and without prior notice to the Client, finalize the Transaction as it may deem appropriate, including (1) by selling the Securities held in another account of the Client; (2) by purchasing or borrowing all the Securities causing the Account to be short; (3) by cancelling or amending any outstanding Transaction Order; or (4) by exercising any other right or recourse provided for in the Agreement or by taking any other measure deemed necessary to protect its interests.

The Client shall then pay to the Broker any and all damages, costs and expenses incurred by the Broker to finalize the Transaction. The net proceeds from such Transactions shall be applied to the payment of any amount due by the Client to the Broker without however lessening the liability of the Client to repay any remaining amount.

15. PRINCIPAL TRANSACTIONS

The Broker may act as principal in executing Transaction Orders for the Client. The Client agrees to approve any Transaction in which the Broker has acted as principal and to pay the resulting transaction fees.

16. COMMISSIONS AND OTHER GENERAL FEES

16.1. Commissions and Other General Fees: The Client shall pay to the Broker brokerage commissions for executing Transactions as well as all the general fees incurred while administering his Account, pursuant to the fee schedule and terms and conditions of the Broker then in effect. The Client acknowledges having been informed of the fee rates (commissions and general fees) set out in detail in the fee schedule as well as of the terms and conditions of the Broker currently in force.

16.2. Disclosure of Charges Before the Transaction: The charges and fees specified in the Commission and General Fee Schedule apply to the transactions made in your account. These transactions include:

- The sale or purchase of securities,
- The liquidation or closure of a position made by the Broker, such as when your margin account is subject to a margin call,
- Exercising an option contract,
- The liquidation of securities to make a payment from your RRIF account in the case that sufficient cash is not available,
- The handling of an estate account when securities are to be liquidated.

If the liquidated securities include deferred sales charges, you will also have to pay these charges. For more details on these charges and fees, please refer to the "Commission fees" available in the "Pricing" section of the nbdb.ca homepage and prospectus.

16.3. Currency Conversion: A currency conversion is required for, among others, the following operations: (i) the Client makes a Transaction involving a security denominated in a currency other than that of the account in which the operation is settled; (ii) the Client transfers funds between accounts denominated in different currencies; or (iii) the Client receives an amount (such as dividends, interest, or a deposit) in a currency other than that of the account in which it is paid. Each time a currency conversion is required, the Broker acts as principal with the Client in converting the currency and is remunerated on the basis of the difference between the price paid by the Client for the currency and the price obtained by the Broker or parties related to the Broker for that same currency (the "Spread").

The exchange rate applicable to the operation (the "Applicable Rate") is established by the Broker or persons related to the Broker as follows:

- a) Market Transaction: The Applicable Rate for a market Transaction corresponds to the interbank exchange rate in effect at the time the Client places his or her Transaction Order, plus the Spread applicable to the operation. The Applicable Rate appears on the order summary, trade confirmation and statement of account.
- b) Transfer of funds: The Applicable Rate for a transfer of funds between accounts denominated in different currencies corresponds to the interbank exchange rate in effect at the time the Client places his or her transfer order, plus the Spread applicable to the operation. The Applicable Rate appears on the order summary and statement of account.
- c) Any other operation For any operation other than a market Transaction or a transfer of funds, the Applicable Rate corresponds to the interbank exchange rate in effect at the time the operation is settled, plus the Spread applicable to the operation. The Applicable Rate appears on the trade confirmation and statement of account.

In each case, the Applicable Rate and the interbank exchange rate vary according to a number of factors, including market fluctuations, the amount, the date and the nature of the operation. The Spread applicable to the operation also varies according to the amount of the operation. The Applicable Rate, the interbank exchange rate and the Spread are subject to change without notice. Up-to-date information on the applicable Spread can be obtained by visiting the "Pricing" section of our Website at nbdb.ca/pricing.html or by contacting one of our representatives by phone. Any currency conversion takes place at the time when the operation is settled.

16.4. Fixed Income Fees: The Broker may act as principal or agent in fixed income transactions. The Broker or parties related to the Broker may earn revenue on the spread between the bid and ask prices.

17. AMOUNTS OWED BY THE CLIENT

- 17.1. Amounts Owed: All amounts owed by the Client to the Broker under the Agreement as a result of the Transaction Orders executed by the Broker, expenses or otherwise shall be payable to the Broker on demand.
- 17.2. Interest Rates: All amounts owed to the Broker shall bear interest commencing on the due date thereof or, in the case of a payment or an advance made by the Broker, as of the date of payment or the date of the advance.
- 17.3. Computation of Interest Payable: The interest payable shall be computed daily and compounded monthly according to the rates in effect with the Broker. For more details, please refer to the "Interest rates" available in the "Pricing" section of the nbd.ca homepage.

18. CROSS GUARANTEE AND COMPENSATION

Any amount owed by the Client to the Broker, and the interest thereon, may be debited from his Account. In the event the Client has several accounts with the Broker, the Client authorizes the Broker to transfer any credit balance from one account to any other account of the Client with a debit balance. The Broker shall be authorized to apply the proceeds from any sale and any other amount held by the Broker in the Client's name against any amount owed by the Client to the Broker.

Similarly, the Client irrevocably authorizes the Broker to take all the necessary steps to cash any Securities held or registered in any account of the Client, and consents to a compensation between the amounts owed and the proceeds from the disposition of any Securities. The Broker shall decide how to apply such proceeds.

The Broker may exercise the rights conferred under this section without publication, notice or demand to the Client or any other third party.

19. HYPOTHEC (APPLICABLE IN QUEBEC) AND SECURITY INTEREST

19.1. Creation of Collateral: In order to secure payment of all the amounts owed by the Client (and by each co-applicant individually, for joint accounts) as well as to secure performance of all obligations, present and future, direct and indirect, contracted hereunder, the Client (and by each co-applicant individually, for joint accounts whether the sums are owed by the applicant or the co-applicant) assigns and hypothecates, in favour of the Broker, all Securities and credit balances held or registered at any time whatsoever in any of his accounts, including the interest, dividends, any proceeds from the disposition thereof and any other income that could be generated therefrom (collectively called the "Collateral"), which shall be automatically held as security by the Broker and shall be charged by a security interest and a lien in favour of the Broker.

19.2. Holding by a Third Party: For the purpose of the constitution or the validity of this hypothec or in order to set it up against third parties or effect publication thereof, the Client agrees that the Collateral may be held by a third party in the Broker's name. It is furthermore agreed that the Broker may furnish written evidence of this hypothec to all third parties, in particular to those holding the Collateral.

20. RECOURSES IN THE EVENT OF DEFAULT

20.1. Default: The Client shall be in default in each of the following cases:

- If any of his obligations, present or future, direct or indirect, contracted toward the Broker is not performed when required;
- If the Client's Account is seized or possession is taken thereof, or it is subject to any other proceeding by a creditor, a receiver or any other person performing similar duties;
- If the Client becomes insolvent or bankrupt;
- If any of the declarations made in the Agreement is false;
- If the Client is subject to dissolution, liquidation or block sale, where applicable;
- If the Client fails to maintain his registration in force, where applicable.

20.2. Recourses: In the event of default by the Client as described in Section 20.1 and in all other cases where, as dictated by usage, the Broker deems that it is reasonable and necessary to protect its interests, the Broker may, at its entire discretion, sell by mutual agreement or otherwise, all or part of the Collateral at the prices and conditions that the Broker may deem the most appropriate in such circumstances. The Broker may also take the Collateral as payment and exercise any other right under the Agreement or provided by law.

Among other things, the Broker may exercise all the rights and powers attached to the Collateral and act as if it were the owner thereof. The Broker may exercise such recourses without publication, notice or demand, or any other prior notice to the Client or third parties. The recourses of the Broker may be exercised together or separately, and in the order that it may determine at its discretion. The Broker may apply the proceeds from the realization of the Securities to the payment of any expenses incurred by it while exercising its rights and recourses, in particular to the payment of judicial and extrajudicial costs incurred, and to the repayment of any obligation of the Client contracted under the Agreement. The Broker shall decide how to apply such proceeds.

Failure by the Broker to exercise one or more of its rights and recourses under the Agreement may not be deemed to be abandonment or a waiver of the said rights and recourses.

21. POWERS OF THE BROKER

The Broker reserve the right, at its sole discretion, to close the Account and to rescind the Convention, in particular if the former is inactive or holds no assets or balance for at least 6 months.

The Broker may also, without notice, in its sole discretion and for its sole benefit, sell any security or restrict Account Transactions in order to comply with legal or regulatory requirements or any internal policies.

22. AMENDMENT BY THE BROKER

The Broker may amend the provisions of the Agreement by way of a written notice of thirty (30) days given to the Client. The amendments shall take effect at the end of the period of thirty (30) days following the receipt of the said notice by the Client.

23. AMENDMENT BY THE CLIENT

The Client may not make any amendment, modification, addition or waiver in respect of one or more of the terms and conditions of the Agreement unless the same is evidenced in a document expressly modifying the terms of the Agreement, and such document is signed by the Client and an Authorized Representative from the Compliance Department of the Broker.

24. DEATH OF THE CLIENT

Upon the Client's death, and until receipt of any documentation prescribed by law and required by the Broker as part of the handling of the estate, the Broker may execute, upon the instructions of the apparent liquidator or a presumed heir, any Transaction of a conservatory nature.

The Broker may, however, refuse at its discretion to execute any Transaction Order and may not be held liable for any loss or damage, whether direct or indirect, arising from the application of this section.

25. TERMINATION

The Convention can be rescinded by the Broker upon written notice to the Client, barring situations mentioned in paragraph 21 herein that do not require any, or by the Client upon reasonable notice to the Broker.

26. ACCOUNT TRANSFER

If the Client transfers his Account held with the Broker to another institution, the Broker is authorized to limit or suspend the Transactions in the Account and to cancel any open orders once notified of that request by the receiving institution. The Client undertakes that no Transaction Order is to be transmitted to the Broker after having initiated an Account transfer request and that all open orders, which remains unfilled, can be cancelled. The Broker may not be held liable for any loss or damage, whether direct or indirect, arising from the application of this section.

27. CANADIAN INVESTOR PROTECTION FUND AND DEPOSIT INSURANCE

The Securities sold through the Broker and held in the Client's Account, and the free credit balances of the Client, unless otherwise notified, shall benefit from the protection of the Canadian Investor Protection Fund pursuant to the conditions for the application thereof. They shall not, however, be insured in whole or in part by the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Autorité des marchés financiers in Quebec or any other public deposit insurance fund, nor shall they be guaranteed in whole or in part by National Bank of Canada.

28. LIABILITY OF THE BROKER

The Broker shall not be liable for any loss caused directly or indirectly by a delay in the receipt or execution of a Transaction Order, periods of abnormal or unusual activity on the markets, government restrictions, decisions of an exchange or over-the-counter market, trading halts, or any other case of Act of God (wars, strikes and lock-outs, etc.) that cannot be foreseen by the Broker and are beyond its reasonable control.

The Broker shall not be liable for errors or omissions with respect to Transaction Orders, the execution thereof or any fact related thereto and consequently, the Broker shall not be bound to compensate for any loss, repair any damage or reimburse any expenses arising therefrom, unless such error or omission was caused by its negligence.

The Broker shall not be liable and shall not be bound to compensate for any loss, repair any damage, or reimburse any expenses arising out of the exercise of its powers under paragraph 21.

29. APPLICABLE LAW

29.1. Applicable Law: Insofar as the home address or permanent address of the Client, where applicable, is located in Canada, the Agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Client's province of residence at the time of the signing of this Agreement. Otherwise, the Agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Province of Quebec.

29.2. Regulations: The Client acknowledges that all his Transactions shall be subject to the by-laws, regulations, orders, customs and usage of the various exchanges or markets on which such Transactions are executed by the Broker, the self-regulatory agencies of which the Broker is a member and, where applicable, the clearing corporations through which they are processed. These transactions shall further be subject to all applicable laws, regulations and orders of any government or self-regulatory authority.

29.3. Minimum Standards: The by-laws, regulations and orders referred to in Section 29.2 constitute a minimum standard in the Canadian securities industry and the Broker may subject any Transaction to more stringent standards.

29.4. Legislative or Regulatory Amendments: In the event of amendments to the laws, regulations or rules in force, amending the terms and conditions of the Agreement, the corresponding provisions shall be deemed to have been amended accordingly, with the other provisions remaining unchanged.

30. ASSIGNMENT AND SUCCESSORS

The Agreement shall be binding upon the Broker, the Client and their successors and assigns, as applicable. The Agreement shall remain valid notwithstanding any incidental, temporary or intermittent closures, or any reopening or any change in the numbering of the Account. The Client shall not assign this Agreement, nor the rights and obligations arising therefrom.

31. COMMUNICATIONS

31.1. Notice to the Client: Any notice, document and communication sent to the Client may be delivered by hand or sent to the Client by postage-paid to the Client's mailing address, by e-mail to the Client's e-mail address or through the Broker's secure site.

31.2. Regulatory Documents: Unless otherwise instructed by the Client, trade confirmations, account statements as well as prospectuses and other documents may be delivered to the Client through the Broker's secure site.

31.3. Notice to the Broker: Any notice, document or communication intended for the Broker must be sent by e-mail or by postage paid to the following address:

The Client is deemed to have received any notice, document, and communication on the same day they are sent by e-mail or through the Broker's secure site.

32. HEADINGS

The headings of the sections of the Agreement are included for convenience of reference only and may not at any time be used to interpret the Agreement.

33. GENDER AND NUMBER

Wherever so required by the context, a word expressing the masculine gender shall include the feminine, and the singular shall include the plural unless otherwise indicated in the context or the context does not lend itself thereto.

34. INVALIDITY OF A PROVISION

If any provision is held to be invalid or unenforceable, such invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect the application of the other provisions of the Agreement, which shall remain in full force and effect and shall continue to be complied with as if the invalid or unenforceable provision was not incorporated therein.

35. COMING INTO FORCE AND SCOPE

This Agreement shall come into force and shall become binding upon the Client and the Broker upon the occurrence of one of the following conditions: (1) when the Broker acts according to the Client's instructions for the first time or (2) at the signing of the Agreement by the Client. The Agreement, and the "Identification Form", which are attached thereto, where applicable, to form an integral part thereof, constitute the entire agreement regarding the Account between the Broker and the Client, and such Agreement supersedes any other oral or written agreement made between the Broker and the Client, including any form of communication, representation, agreement or undertaking prior to this Agreement. The provisions of this Agreement are separate provisions in addition to all other provisions contained in the "Margin Agreement" and the "Options Trading Agreement" included herein.

36. NOTICE TO CLIENTS RESIDING IN THE UNITED-STATES

NBDB, as a Canadian securities broker relying on certain exemptions from registration in the United States (U.S.), must advise all of its clients residing in the U.S., that their accounts are not regulated under the securities laws of the U.S. and that NBDB is not subject to the broker-dealer regulations of the U.S.

MARGIN ACCOUNT AGREEMENT

In consideration of the Broker agreeing to open and maintain a margin account in the name of the Client, the latter consents and undertakes to comply with the following terms and conditions:

1. REFERENCES

All the clauses of the Cash Account Agreement shall form an integral part of this Margin Account Agreement, including the necessary adjustments in view of the context of a Margin Account.

2. MARGIN

2.1. Margin (Guarantee): The Client is liable and undertakes to maintain at all times the protective margins required, as established from time to time by the Broker at its entire discretion.

2.2. Additional Guarantees: The Client also undertakes to furnish additional guarantees for any obligation that he has contracted toward the Broker and whenever requested by the Broker.

2.3. Margin Call: When it deems it necessary, the Broker may, at its sole discretion, without having to make any prior request, sell all or part thereof, or purchase any Securities for which an Account is in margin deficiency, in order to meet any commitment of the Client.

3. AMOUNTS OWED BY THE CLIENT

Any debit amount in the Client's Account resulting from a cash advance or a Transaction, shall constitute an amount owing under Section 17 of the Cash Account Agreement, and shall bear interest at the same conditions.

4. HYPOTHEC (IN QUEBEC) AND SECURITY INTEREST

The Securities held for the Client's Account shall, upon being purchased, be hypothecated in favour of the Broker, as stipulated in Section 19 of the Cash Account Agreement.

5. USE OF SECURITIES

As long as the Client's Securities are not fully paid, the Broker may use them as follows:

- a) lend them and use them in the day-to-day management of its business;
- b) borrow money and pledge them, separately or with its own Securities or those of other persons, for purposes it deems appropriate;
- c) deliver said Securities to hedge sales made for the account of another person, without having to keep in its possession or under its control Securities of the same nature and of the same amount;
- d) use them to make delivery following a sale by the Broker acting as principal or for an account in which the Broker or one of its directors has a direct or indirect interest.

6. SHORT SALES

Unless the Client has expressly indicated to the Broker beforehand that he is selling short in a margin account opened specifically for this purpose, the Client shall deliver to the Broker all the Securities sold on his behalf and not held by the Broker or an agent or mandatary no later than the scheduled settlement date. The Client shall notify the Broker when issuing a short sale order. All sell orders given by the Client shall be considered to be covered, unless otherwise specified by the Client.

If the Client fails to make delivery pursuant to the foregoing or if the Broker sells the Client's Securities according to his instructions and is unable to deliver the same to the purchaser because the Client is not the owner of the Securities or is not in a position to deliver them to the Broker on the settlement date in an acceptable and negotiable form for delivery, the Broker may, at its discretion, execute the Transaction as it may deem appropriate. The Client shall then be required to pay the Broker for any damages, costs and expenses incurred by the Broker to execute the Transaction.

7. POWERS OF THE BROKER

As often as deemed necessary and without previously notifying the Client thereof, the Broker may, on an exchange or any other market or by private sale:

- a) buy or sell any Securities causing the Client's margin account to be short;
- b) sell any Securities held for the Client's account;
- c) cancel any Transaction Order being executed;
- d) take any other measure deemed necessary to protect its interests.

The net proceeds from such Transactions shall be applied to the payment of any amounts owed by the Client to the Broker, without however lessening the Client's responsibility to repay any remaining amount.

8. COLLECTION OF INFORMATION

The Client acknowledges that information on his financial situation and creditworthiness are essential elements for granting and maintaining his margin loan with the Broker. Consequently, the Client authorizes the Broker to make continuous checks in this regard with persons and entities who hold such information and, if necessary, to deliver a copy of this authorization to such persons and entities.

OPTIONS TRADING AGREEMENT

In consideration of the Broker agreeing to act as an investment dealer for any Options Trading Accounts in the Client's name, the Client consents and undertakes to comply with the following terms and conditions:

1. REFERENCES

All the clauses of the Cash Account Agreement and the Margin Account Agreement shall form an integral part of this Options Trading Agreement, including the necessary adjustments in view of the context of an Options Trading Account.

2. OPTIONS

The Broker shall act, from time to time, as a dealer for the purchase, sale or execution of puts and calls that can be traded on a recognized market, or other Options Transactions (hereinafter called the "Options").

3. ROLE OF THE CLIENT

The Client acknowledges that he has the required knowledge, necessary experience and required financial resources to carry out and support any Options trade in which he may participate. The Client agrees to pay to the Broker all fees and commissions applicable to options trading, including any fees that could be charged as a commission, when the Broker acts as market maker or principal for the purchase or sale of options. The Client acknowledges having read and understood the Derivatives Risk Disclosure Statement.

4. REGULATIONS

In addition to the rules imposed by the Broker, Options shall be subject to the provisions of the rules of the various clearing corporations which issue Options, of the exchanges on which the Options are traded, and of any other competent self-regulatory agency. The Client undertakes to comply with position limits, maximum limits on short positions, exercise limits, margin requirements, subsequent transaction requirements, reporting requirements and all other requirements determined at the option of the Broker and the competent self-regulatory agencies concerned. The Broker reserves the right to modify trading and transactions limits or any other restrictions at its sole discretion. The Client undertakes to comply with the requirements currently in force that may be subsequently amended at the option of the Broker or relevant regulatory or self-regulatory authorities. If required by applicable laws or upon request, the Broker may be required to provide regulatory authorities with information and/or reports related to position and exercise limits, as well as reporting of derivative positions and transactions.

5. LIMITS

The Client acknowledges that limits may be set on short positions, and that in the last ten (10) days preceding the expiry of an Option, a cash-only basis may apply for Transactions, which may vary at the option of the Broker and the competent self-regulatory agencies concerned.

6. ASSIGNMENT

The Broker shall assign exercise notices for Options on a random selection basis or otherwise, as it may deem appropriate. For this purpose, the Broker shall maintain a register according to the execution date of the initial sales of Options traded by its clients.

7. INSTRUCTIONS

The Client shall provide instructions to the Broker in a timely manner concerning the sale, close-out or exercise of any Option or any other action to be taken regarding his Options. The Client acknowledges that the Broker shall have no duty or obligation to take any measures with regard to the Options or exercise the Client's Options before their expiry without specific instructions from the Client. The Client may transmit his instructions regarding Options Trading by phone during our business hours or online via our trading platform at any time. An order may be executed during the regular trading hours of the exchange concerned. Notice of the Client's intention to exercise an Option shall be required to be given no later than 4:00 p.m., Montreal time, preceding the expiry date of the Option.

8. POWERS OF THE BROKER

Any order to trade an Option given by the Client may be refused by the Broker at its entire discretion. Should the Broker deem it necessary or desirable, particularly in the case of insolvency, death, bankruptcy, or any other event that could change the Client's financial condition, the Broker may, without having to first notify the Client, take all the measures required to protect its interests against any losses. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Broker may, in particular, sell any Securities held for the Client's account, purchase any Securities for which the Client's Account is short, or buy or sell any uncovered Options for the Client's account and at his risk. The Broker may also act for other clients who are on the other side of a transaction when it deems it appropriate, subject to the rules of the exchange where the transaction takes place.

9. DELAYS

The Client acknowledges that an exercise notice in respect of an expired option position may reach him several days after trading has ceased on the said Option since listed expiring Options cease to be traded some time before the scheduled hour in order to allow the last exercise notice to be allocated, and that administrative delays and delays in transmission due to failures or the slowness of the information transmission or communication system may occur. The Client further acknowledges that such a delay may cause him to suffer an unexpected loss, for which the Broker is not liable, and that for such purpose, the Broker has specific margin rules for Clients who contract expiring Options.

10. LIABILITY OF THE BROKER

The Broker may not be held liable for errors and omissions affecting an order or the execution thereof regarding the purchase, sale, execution or expiry of Options or any other Options Transaction unless such error or omission is caused by the Broker's negligence. The Broker is entitled, but not required, to correct any mistake in filling an order to buy or sell an option by filling the order at the market price that was in effect when the order should have been filled.

11. ACCURACY AND CHANGE OF INFORMATION

The Client confirms that any information provided concerning the opening of an Options Trading Account is complete and accurate. The Client further undertakes to inform the Broker of any changes affecting his financial condition including, without limiting the scope thereof, any Options trading restriction to which he may be subject.

12. FREE CREDIT BALANCES

In addition to any other recourse it may have, the Broker is authorized to use the credit balances available in the Client's account, in whole or in part, in the course of its activities and within the limits prescribed by CIRO and any applicable law, and as set out in the Cash Account Agreement.

If the Client has debit balances in other accounts with the Broker, the Broker may use the credit balances available in the Client's account to offset these debits.

13. WARRANTY

In order to secure the repayment or all amounts that the Client may owe to the Broker, the Client hereby grants to the Broker a security interest or, in the province of Quebec, a movable hypothec, on all assets, including securities and credit balances held or deposited in the Client's account(s) with the Broker (the "Secured Property"), now and at all times in the future. With respect to the Secured Property subject to the legislation in force in the province of Quebec, since the Quebec Civil Code requires that the amount of the movable hypothec be stated, the hypothec is set at $100,000,000. For these purposes, the Client hereby grants to the Broker control over the Secured Property. This amount does not represent the amount of the Client's obligation to the Broker or the amount of any credit made available to the Client by the Broker. The hypothec therefore has no tangible impact on the Client, unless the Client owes the Broker, at any time, amounts, for any reason whatsoever.

The Broker may hold the Secured Property at any location it sees fit through a third party of its choice, and may provide this Agreement to any third party to prove that it has control over the Secured Property.

In the event that the Client owes any amount, the Broker may use the Secured Property, in whole or in part, without notice and without having to obtain the Client's prior permission, in the course of carrying out its activities, including:

- by pledging, mortgaging or otherwise using them as security for any of the Client's debts;
- by using them for sale, repurchase or any other similar transaction, without notice and without having to respect a grace period or any other specific time limit;
- by lending some or all of it in the course of the day-to-day management of its business, including transferring the Secured Property for any of the Client's accounts to any other account the Client holds with the Broker.

The Broker may also use any financial assets held in or credited to the Client's account for the purpose of delivering them against a sale, whether such sale is made for the Client's account, for another client or for any account in which the Broker may have a direct or indirect interest.

14. MARGIN

Options may be traded on margin. Margin transactions are subject, at all times, to the initial margin and maintenance margin requirements (the "Margin Requirements") established by the Broker, CIRO, or the applicable exchange, whichever is greater.

The Client shall monitor its account so that the account shall contain a sufficient account balance to meet the applicable Margin Requirements, at all times. The Client agrees to pay interest on any credit extended to or maintained for it by the Broker. The Broker may modify such Margin Requirements for any account holder for open and new positions, at any time, at the Broker's sole discretion.

The Broker may, at its discretion and without prior notice to the Client, call for margin whenever the Broker deems it necessary or advisable for its protection and the Client shall immediately deposit additional funds into or close positions in its account to restore margin on deposit to initial margin levels.

DERIVATIVES RISK DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

This risk disclosure statement does not disclose all of the risks and other significant considerations associated with trading in derivatives. In light of the variety of risks involved, you should undertake such transactions only if you understand the nature of the contracts, the contractual relationships into which you are entering and the extent of your exposure to risk. Trading in derivatives is not suitable for everyone and often entails a high level of risk. Trading in derivatives should be made with caution and you should carefully consider whether such transactions are appropriate for you in light of your personal and financial circumstances, investment needs and objectives, investment knowledge, risk profile, investment time horizon, and other relevant circumstances. You should consult with your own business, legal, tax and account advisers before engaging into such transactions.

You may lose more than the amount of funds deposited

A characteristic of many derivatives is that you are only required to deposit funds that correspond to a portion of your total potential obligations and yet your profits or losses are based on changes in the total value of the derivative. This inherent leverage characteristic means that losses incurred can greatly exceed the amount of funds deposited. A relatively small market movement will have a proportionately larger impact on the funds you have deposited or will have to deposit. Your dealer may require you to deposit additional funds on short notice to maintain your positions as the value of the derivative changes. If you fail to deposit these funds, your dealer may close out your position at a loss, without warning and you will be liable for any resulting deficit in your account.

Using borrowed funds carries greater risk

Using borrowed funds to finance a derivatives transaction involves greater risk than using cash resources only. If you borrow money, your responsibility to repay the loan and pay interest as required by its terms remains the same even if the value of the derivative declines.

Deposited cash and property

You should familiarize yourself with the protections accorded to money or other property you deposit for domestic and foreign transactions, particularly in the event of a firm insolvency or bankruptcy. The extent to which you may recover your money or property may be governed by specific legislation or local rules.

Commission and other charges

Before you begin to trade, you should obtain a clear explanation of all commission, fees and other charges for which you will be liable. These charges will affect your net profit (if any) or increase your loss.

Fluctuations in price or value

The price and value of derivatives can be adversely affected by volatile market conditions and such occurrences may significantly increase your risk exposure. There are a variety of market factors and conditions which can directly or indirectly affect derivatives such as market demand and supply, interest rate, foreign currency exchange rate, indices, commodity prices, equity prices, investor perception and other political or economic factors. Since derivatives are linked to one or multiple underlying interests, the price or value of the derivatives may also be subject to considerable fluctuations due to the risks associated with the underlying interest. The level of sensitivity of an underlying interest with specific market conditions can have wide implications on the value of derivatives linked to that underlying interest. For example, when two or more factors are affecting one or more underlying interests of a derivative, its value may become unpredictable. A small movement in the price of one underlying interest can cause a sudden and large fluctuation in a derivative's value.

Hedging and risk management strategies

Hedging transactions may require constant monitoring. A failure to adjust your hedging transaction in light of changing market conditions may result in the position becoming either under-hedged or over-hedged and losses can ensue.

The placing of certain orders (e.g. "stop-loss" or "stop-limit" orders) which are intended to limit losses to certain amounts may not be effective because market conditions may make it impossible to execute such orders. Strategies using combinations of positions, such as "spread" and "straddle" positions may be as risky as taking simple "long" or "short" positions.

Listed derivatives

Under certain market conditions, you may find it difficult or impossible to liquidate or offset an existing position on a marketplace (e.g. buy-to-close or sell-to-close order). This can occur, for example, when the market reaches a daily price fluctuation limit ("daily price limit" or "circuit breakers").

You should ask your dealer about the terms and conditions of the specific derivatives which you are trading and associated obligations. Under certain circumstances the specifications of outstanding contracts may be modified by the marketplace or clearing house to reflect changes in the underlying interest.

Over-the-counter derivatives

Over-the-counter derivatives (OTC derivatives) trading is not done on a marketplace. Your dealer is your trading counterparty. When you sell, your dealer is the buyer and when you buy, your dealer is the seller. As a result, when you lose money trading, your dealer may be making money on such trades, in addition to any fees, commissions, or spreads it may charge.

An electronic trading platform for trading OTC derivatives such as contracts for difference and foreign exchange contracts is not a marketplace. It is an electronic connection for accessing your dealer. You are accessing that trading platform only to transact with your dealer. You are not trading with any other entities or clients of the dealer by accessing such platform. The availability and operation of any such platform, including the consequences of the unavailability of the trading platform for any reason, is governed only by the terms of your account agreement with the dealer.

You are limited to your dealer to offset or liquidate any trading positions since the transactions are not made on a marketplace. As such, it may be difficult or impossible to liquidate an existing position. The customized nature of certain OTC derivatives may also add to illiquidity.

The terms of OTC derivative contracts are generally not standardized, and the prices and characteristics are often individually negotiated with your dealer. A central source to obtain or compare prices may not exist. It may be difficult to assess the value, to determine a fair price or to assess the exposure to risk. You should ask your dealer about the terms and conditions of the OTC derivative contracts you are trading and understand the related rights and obligations.

ADDITIONAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR U.S. DOLLAR REGISTERED ACCOUNTS

The following terms and conditions are in addition to the terms and conditions included in the Declaration of Trust applicable to your registered account, as well as those that are applicable to your accounts at National Bank Direct Brokerage ("NBDB"), a division of National Bank Financial Inc.

1. Currency Conversion

Any amount in a currency other than the U.S. dollar that is transferred or credited to a U.S. dollar registered account is converted into U.S. dollars. This includes, among other things, dividends, interest and proceeds of the sale of securities.

All foreign currencies are converted on the transaction date, using the rates established or determined by NBDB. In addition, NBDB (or its related parties) may earn income from the conversion of any currency.

2. Conversion of Contribution Receipts

For the purposes of issuing contribution receipts, the value of any U.S. dollar or U.S. securities contributions to a registered account in U.S. dollars are converted into Canadian dollars. In the case of U.S. securities, the conversion is based on the market value of the securities. The exchange rate used for the conversion is the rate in effect on the day the contribution is made.

3. Transfer to a Canadian Dollar Fund

If your registered U.S. dollar account is either a registered retirement savings plan for your spouse or common law partner or a locked-in account, the assets therein can only be transferred to a fund in Canadian dollars. In the event of such a transfer, amounts in your U.S. dollar account are converted into Canadian dollars, using the applicable rate on the date of the transfer.

4. Offset between Canadian and U.S. dollar accounts

1. ACCOUNT TYPES

NBDB offers different types of accounts designed to cater to your financial needs.

1.1 Non-registered accounts

1.1.1 Cash account

A cash account provides a quick way to manage all your investments. In this type of account, you must maintain or deposit certain amounts to cover your purchases. Account available in Canadian and US dollars.

1.1.2 Margin account

A margin account allows you to borrow against the market value of eligible securities already in your account. The maximum loan amount of an eligible securities is determined by the Canadian Investment Regulatory Organization (CIRO), (we can determine a more restrictive value than this maximum loan amount), and varies depending on the type of investment and the market value of the security. You have to pay a certain amount of money, called the margin deposit, in partial settlement of the transaction. Interest charges are to be paid by you on any amount we lend you. Account available in Canadian and US dollars.

1.1.3 Margin account with short selling

This type of account allows you to sell securities that you do not yet own, with the intention of buying them back eventually at a lower price and potentially realizing a capital gain. Because security prices can rise or fall unexpectedly, this type of transaction could result in a loss if you are required to buy back the security at a price above the original selling price. Interest charges are to be paid by you on any amount we lend you. Account available in Canadian and US dollars.

1.1.4 Income account

With an income account, you can have dividends and interest from your investments deposited into a bank account at any branch of National Bank of Canada or another major banking institution. Account available in Canadian and US dollars.

1.2 Registered accounts

1.2.1 Tax-Free Savings Account (TFSA)

The TFSA is a savings method in which your money grows tax-free. The contribution ceiling for the TFSA is set by the federal government without regard to your earned income with the opportunity to catch up your unused contributions for each year since 2009. Investment income (interest, dividends, etc.) and capital gains are not taxable. Account available in Canadian and US dollars.

1.2.2 Tax-Free Home Savings Account (TFHSA)

The TFHSA is a registered plan for first-time home buyers. You can contribute up to a maximum determined by the government authorities regardless of your earned income, with the possibility of making up unused contributions for each year since 2023. Contributions are tax-deductible and withdrawals for the purchase of a first home, including investment income (interest, dividends or other) are not taxable. Account available in Canadian and US dollars.

1.2.3 Registered Retirement Savings Plan (RRSP)

With an RRSP, you can accumulate funds for retirement tax-free and, at the same time, reduce the income taxes you pay today. Amounts contributed to an RRSP are deducted from your current taxable income, allowing you to defer taxation until you retire, a time when your income and tax rate is generally lower. Your RRSP account must be converted into a RRIF no later than December 31 of the year you turn 71 years of age. Account available in Canadian and US dollars.

1.2.4 Registered Education Savings Plan (RESP)

The RESP helps you finance the post-secondary education of those you name as beneficiaries, usually your children or grandchildren. Returns on your investments accumulate tax-free until they are withdrawn. The amount that you contribute will be enhanced by the Canada Education Savings Grant (CESG), by an amount of 20% of the first $2,500 (or less) of annual contributions, up to $500 per year per beneficiary. Additional grants may be awarded based on your family's net income.

1.2.5 Locked-in Retirement Account (LIRA)

The LIRA is a retirement savings vehicle in which only pension fund amounts under provincial jurisdiction can be deposited. A LIRA must be converted into a Life Income Fund or a life annuity no later than December 31 of the year you turn 71 years of age. Account available in Canadian and US dollars.

1.2.6 Locked-in RRSP

This type of account is a retirement savings vehicle that can only accept amounts from registered pension plans subject to federal law. A Locked-in RRSP must be converted into a life annuity or a Life Income Fund (federal jurisdiction) before December 31 of the year you turn 71 years of age. Account available in Canadian and US dollars.

1.2.7 Registered Disability Savings Plan (RDSP)

A RDSP is a savings plan that is intended to help parents and others to save for the long-term financial security of a person who is eligible for the Disability Tax Credit (DTC). As an incentive to save, the government will pay a Canada Disability Savings Grant (CDSG). Low-income families will be paid, under certain conditions, Canada Disability Savings Bonds (CDSB). As with all other registered plans, investment income accumulates tax-free.

1.3 Retirement income accounts

1.3.1 Registered Retirement Income Fund (RRIF)

Like all investors, you will have to convert your RRSP into a RRIF the year you turn 71 years of age. The RRIF is a natural extension of an RRSP, so it is one of the most sensible choices you can make. In addition to allowing you to defer income taxes on capital and income until the invested amounts are withdrawn, the RRIF allows you to make monthly, quarterly, semi-annual or annual withdrawals of retirement income. You are free to set the withdrawal amounts, as long as they meet the mandatory minimum amount determined by the government. Account available in Canadian and US dollars.

1.3.2 Life Income Fund (LIF)

The LIF is a type of retirement income plan that is similar to the RRIF. However, unlike the RRIF, it sets a maximum amount for retirement income withdrawals. Funds transferred into LIFs come from locked-in accounts, which in turn were created from amounts from pension funds.

1.4 Special accounts

NBDB offers a wide variety of special accounts to meet the specific financial needs of certain entities. This includes: companies, sole proprietorships and estates.

2. TYPES OF PRODUCTS

2.1 Shares

A share is a security that gives the investor ownership rights in a company. Depending on the type of share, shares can represent equity in a company, participation in distributions of the company's profits paid out as dividends and/or voting rights at shareholder meetings. There are two main types of shares: common shares and preferred shares.

2.2 High interest savings account

A high interest savings account (HISA) is a type of account that offers better returns with a higher interest rate than a current savings account. The interest rate is variable and interest is paid monthly. This product offers optimal security and flexibility and can allow you to grow your money while you decide how to invest it.

2.3 Exchange-traded funds

Exchange-traded funds (ETFs) are securities that track an index, a commodity or a basket of assets like an index fund. They are made up of portfolios of securities (shares, bonds, etc.) managed by portfolio managers. Investors need to consider an ETF's management style (which may be passive, active, inverse or with leverage) and its portfolio of securities to determine whether it is the one that best meets their needs.

In contrast to investment funds, which are traded once a day at the close of trading, ETFs are traded on the exchange. This means that you can freely trade them and track changes in their values throughout the day.

2.4 Investment funds

When you invest in an investment fund, you buy part of the fund; this part is called a unit when the fund is incorporated as a trust. Investment funds may invest in different types of securities, including common and preferred shares, in debt securities such as bonds and debentures, and in money market instruments, including Treasury bills. Management decisions regarding the assets held in investment funds are made by portfolio managers.

2.5 Fixed income securities

2.5.1 Bonds

A bond is a negotiable debt security issued by a company (public or private) or governmental entity (the federal government, a provincial government or a municipality) giving the investor a claim against the issuer. Property is generally pledged to secure the loan (except in the case of government bonds).

2.5.2 Debentures

Like bonds, debentures are debt securities. A debenture may be secured by various protective clauses, a residual equity and the issuer's creditworthiness, but it is not usually secured by specific tangible assets that can be seized and sold in the event of default. Consequently, debentures may offer a higher interest rate than comparable bonds, because they are usually riskier.

In some cases, debentures offer the holder the possibility of conversion into common shares when certain predetermined conditions are met. A company may decide to issue a debenture and make it available on the markets.

2.5.3 Stripped bonds and coupons

These assets actually represent the two components that usually make up a bond: the principal (stripped bond) and the interest payments (coupons). However, for this bond category, the coupons are separated from the bond, creating two separate products.

Once detached, the coupons are purchased at a discount and are redeemed at their full face value at maturity. They can be sold in whole or in part before maturity. Regular interest is not paid, as all interest is paid at maturity.

The holder can sell the coupons on the secondary market before maturity, in which case he will receive the day's rate. Because the values of these products fluctuate with the markets and interest rates, there is no way to predict the return that the client will realize if he or she sells before maturity (the client may even incur a loss).

2.5.4 Principal Protected Notes (PPNs)

Principal protected notes or linked notes are debt securities that provide a guarantee, based on the issuer's creditworthiness, that the principal will be repaid at maturity. The yield to maturity, if any, is linked to the performance of the stock markets. PPNs can be made up of a variety of underlying assets. Various fees may be charged and thus reduce the return.

Generally, the duration of the terms varies between three and ten years. Some notes are not redeemable prior to maturity. However, if it is possible to redeem them, in whole or in part, before maturity, the holder could lose the guarantee of repayment of the principal and have to pay fees, particularly to the issuer.

2.5.5 Non-Principal Protected Notes (NPPNs)

Non-principal protected notes are debt securities that, unlike PPNs, do not guarantee principal protection at maturity. Just like PPNs, they can be made up of a variety of underlying assets and various fees may be charged. Thus, NPPNs can generate a positive return, but they can also lead to losses.

Generally, the duration of the terms varies between three and ten years. These notes can be redeemed prior to maturity. However, fees may be charged by the issuer if you make an early redemption request.

2.6 Money market securities

2.6.1 Government of Canada Treasury bills

Government of Canada treasury bills (T-bills) are short-term government debt instruments issued in denominations ranging from $1,000 to $1,000,000. Treasury bills do not earn interest. They are issued below par and are redeemable (at maturity) at par. The difference is the interest earned.

2.6.2 Quebec Treasury bills

Quebec treasury bills are short-term government debt instruments similar to Government of Canada treasury bills. Most issues have terms of several days to 180 days. The minimum investment amount is $25,000, regardless of the term chosen by the client.

2.6.3 Bankers' acceptances

Bankers' acceptances are bearer notes issued by a corporation and guaranteed by a bank. When a bank agrees to guarantee a note, it assumes the responsibility for paying the holder at maturity if the corporation is unable to do so. Bankers' acceptances are issued for terms ranging from a few days to one year. However, in most cases, they are issued for 30 to 90 days. The minimum purchase amount is $25,000, regardless of the term chosen by the client.

2.6.4 Bearer term notes

A bearer term note is an instrument issued and secured by a bank and sold to Canadian investors with short-term funds.

2.6.5 Commercial paper

Commercial paper consists of a bearer or registered note issued by a well-known commercial or industrial company. Commercial paper is often endorsed by the parent company or a subsidiary, or supported by a line of credit at a bank. The issuing company's credit rating, which determines the degree of risk, influences the interest rate paid to the investor. Most commercial paper is issued for 30 to 90 days. It can be sold at a discount or at par. The minimum purchase amount is $100,000, regardless of the term chosen by the client.

2.7 Guaranteed investment certificates (GICs)

2.7.1 Conventional GICs

Conventional guaranteed investment certificates generally offer terms of 30 days to 5 years and are sold in redeemable and non-redeemable versions. The date of payment of the simple or compound interest is known when the GIC is issued.

2.7.2 Variable-return GICs

Variable-return GICs enable investors to benefit from a potential return linked to the markets, while fully protecting their initial investment. Variable-return GICs include index-linked GICs, which combine the security of a deposit certificate and the growth potential of a stock.

2.8 Derivatives

2.8.1 Options

An option contract gives the holder the right but not the obligation to buy or sell a given position in an underlying security, at a given exercise price, at a specified time or at any time before a specified expiry date.

An option giving the holder the right to acquire the underlying security is a call option, while a put option gives the holder the option to sell the security.

2.8.2 Subscription warrants

A warrant is a security that gives the holder the right to buy the shares of an issuing company at a stipulated price within a specified period. In that sense, a warrant is similar to a call option. The main difference between these two financial products is that warrants are issued by companies, while call options are sold by investors.

2.8.3 Subscription rights

A subscription right is a temporary privilege granted to a shareholder that allows the shareholder to buy additional shares directly from the issuing company. Rights are issued to shareholders in proportion to the number of securities they hold. Rights usually expire within a short period. If the shareholder does not exercise or sell his rights before they expire, he may incur a financial loss.

5.1 Designation of a trusted contact person

When opening your account, you will have the opportunity to designate, if you wish, a trusted contact person with whom NBDB can communicate in specific circumstances. NBDB may contact this person for confirmation or information regarding, among others, the following:

- Concerns about your capacity to make financial decisions in your best interest, understand information or measure the foreseeable consequences of a financial decision that you are about to make or not make;
- Suspects financial exploitation;
- Your updated contact information in the event NBDB is unable to reach you successfully, after several attempts;

5.2 Temporary holds

NBDB may not carry out your instruction in connection with certain or all securities, funds or other products in your account. NBDB may place a temporary suspension on the securities, funds or other products held in your account, for example, during a subscription transaction, purchase, sale, withdrawal or transfer. This temporary suspension may occur in particular if NBDB has reasonable grounds to believe that you are a vulnerable person and are or have been the victim of financial exploitation or even of attempted financial exploitation or financial abuse, or that you do not have the mental capacity to make decisions involving financial matters. If such situation arises, NBDB will advise you of the reasons for this suspension as soon as possible. If the temporary suspension must be maintained beyond a period of 30 days, you will be informed of the reasons justifying it at each subsequent period of 30 days.

6. DOCUMENTATION TO HELP YOU TRACK PORTFOLIO ACTIVITY

Regular communications are part of any good relationship. We have different means for staying in touch with you, such as mail, email and phone. When we need to send you information, we will use the most recent contact information you have provided. You are responsible for keeping us informed of any changes in your contact information, so that we can always reach you.

6.1 Trade confirmation

We will send you, by mail, or we will make available on the trading platform, a trade confirmation on the day following each transaction that you make in your account. You will need to verify the accuracy of this confirmation and advise us of any errors or omissions regarding its content within three (3) days of receipt. Once this deadline has expired, you are deemed to have accepted and definitively ratified the content of the trade confirmation, which is then considered accurate and cannot be contested.

6.2 Portfolio statement

We will send you, by mail, or we will make available on the trading platform, a monthly statement between the 5th and 10th day of the following month, when there has been activity in your account during the preceding month. An activity is defined as a transaction other than the recording of dividends, distributions or interest. When there is no activity in the account, you will be sent a statement at least once per quarter.

When we send you an account statement, you must confirm its accuracy and notify us of any error or omission in its content within thirty (30) days of receipt. Once the thirty (30) day period has expired, you are deemed to have accepted and definitively ratified the content of the account statement, which is then considered accurate and can no longer be contested.

6.3 Investment Performance Report

Annually, you will receive a report of your performance over the past year and since inception. This information can help you assess your progress toward meeting your investment goals.

Calculation of return

The "total percentage return" of your account provided in the report is calculated net of costs and other charges based on two (2) calculation methodologies.

The "Time-weighted rate of return" (TWRR) calculation is commonly used in the financial industry and is a standard requirement from the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) Institute. "TWRR" calculations do not consider the impact of deposits and withdrawals you have made within your account. The results of this performance calculation isolate the investment decisions made within your account and do not consider the timing of deposits and withdrawals. Therefore, your account's TWRR can be compared against a relevant benchmark for you to assess your performance.

The "Money-weighted rate of return" (MWRR) is a performance calculation methodology required by regulators such as the Canadian Securities Administrators (CSA) and the Canadian Investment Regulatory Organization (CIRO). "MWRR" is a calculation methodology used to measure the performance experienced by the investor. The rate of return is influenced by the timing of deposits and withdrawals from your account and takes into consideration not only the amount but also the timing of the cash flow. This provides a picture of how your account is performing in light of decisions you have made to deposit or withdraw funds over a set period. Its results cannot be compared to a benchmark.

6.4 Return to your portfolio (trading platform)

Access your account through our trading platform and the Accounts > Performance will give you detailed information on the return in each of your account types, individually or on a consolidated basis using one of two methods: by individual period or by cumulative periods.

Assessment date

Return by individual period. The return displayed here has been calculated for the relevant period and does not take prior periods into account.

Return by cumulative periods. The return displayed here has been calculated for the relevant period, as well as prior periods.

Calculation of return

The return is calculated using the "Time-weighted rate of return" (TWRR). This calculation is commonly used in the financial industry and is a standard requirement from the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) Institute. "TWRR" calculations do not consider the impact of deposits and withdrawals you have made within your account. The results of this performance calculation isolate the investment decisions made within your account and do not consider the timing of deposits and withdrawals. Therefore, your account's TWRR can be compared against a relevant benchmark for you to assess your performance.

Investment performance benchmarks

Comparing your portfolio's performance to that of an appropriate benchmark is a useful exercise for monitoring purposes. Benchmark comparisons can help you determine if your investment approach is delivering the desired results, or whether changes might be called for. Investment benchmarks are also helpful for developing realistic expectations about returns your portfolio can generate over the long term.

Investment benchmarks usually provide a broad measure of the return generated by specific asset classes over a given period. They are often referred to as reference indices since the most common form of investment benchmark is an index - such as a stock or bond index. A benchmark must replicate the security or portfolio you are monitoring as closely as possible for the comparison to be meaningful. Examples of benchmarks would include the S&P/TSX for Canadian stocks, the DEX Universe for Canadian bonds and the S&P 500 for U.S. stocks. For a portfolio composed of securities from several different asset classes, the appropriate benchmark would be a blend of indices weighted according to the portfolio's asset mix.

For more information about comparing your portfolio's return to a benchmark, please don't hesitate to contact us.

Sharpe ratio

The Sharpe index represents the real return (return obtained less the risk-free return) obtained for each unit of risk (standard deviation). The rate of return on Treasury bills is often considered a risk-free rate, given that they are debt instruments issued by the state whose term is short enough to minimize market-related interest rate risk. So the higher the Sharpe index, the more positive it is.

6.5 Annual Fees and Compensation Report

Annually, you will receive a report that summarizes the amounts we received directly and/or indirectly, over the past year, to provide you with our services and tools as they relate to your investment account.

Our compensation comes from two sources:

1. What you pay us directly. Some of these charges are associated with the operation of your account. Others are associated with purchases, sales and other types of transactions you make in your investment portfolio.
2. What we receive through third parties.

7. INFORMATION ON SITUATIONS THAT COULD CREATE OR BE PERCEIVED AS CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Securities regulations in Canada require all investment dealers to comply with rules about conflicts of interest. It is important for you to know how we identify and respond to conflicts of interest, as well as how we minimize their impact.

What is a conflict of interest?

We consider a potential conflict of interest to be any circumstance in which our interests, or the interests of our employees could be inconsistent with or divergent from the interests of our clients or others who use our services.

We take reasonable steps to identify all existing material conflicts of interest, as well as those that are reasonably foreseeable. We then assess the level of risk associated with each conflict.

We avoid any situation that would create a serious conflict of interest or represent too high a risk for you or for the integrity of financial markets. In any other situation, we take appropriate measures to address the conflict in your best interest. Where it cannot be avoided, we will notify you of any existing or reasonably foreseeable material conflict of interest situation as they arise.

Conflict of Interest Situations

We could potentially be in a conflict of interest in our dealing with:

- Issuers of securities
- Related dealers and advisors
- Other related companies
- Our employees
- Our clients

The following sections describe each of these potential conflicts, the effects they might have on you and how we deal with them.

Issuers of Securities

Sometimes we deal in the shares of companies or people that are related or connected to us. Since NBDB is a division of National Bank Financial Inc. ("NBF"), the issuers are those of NBF. Here is how we define those terms.

A company or person is a "related issuer" if:

- the person or company is an influential holder of NBF;
- NBF is an influential holder of the person or company; or
- both NBF and the person or company are related issuers of the same third-party securities.

A company or person is a "connected issuer" if the issuer has a relationship with NBF that may lead a reasonable prospective purchaser to question whether we are independent from the issuer and believe that we will benefit from it. This includes the issuer's relationship with us, with one of our related issuers, with our directors, officers or partners or those of our related issuer.

You will find the list of related or connected issuers on our website under the "Regulatory information" section at <https://nbdb.ca/regulation.html>.

When NBF deal with securities issued by our related or connected issuers, NBF may:

- Act as an underwriter or selling group member in the distribution of the securities;
- Sell the securities to, or on behalf of, its clients;
- Purchase the securities from, or on behalf of, its clients;
- Exercise discretionary authority to buy or sell the securities, with the consent of the client;
- Act as an advisor regarding the securities;
- Make recommendations to buy or sell the securities;
- Offer for sale securities, goods and services issued or provided by National Bank of Canada or another related issuer;
- Work with National Bank of Canada or another related issuer in to jointly offer the sale or purchase of securities, goods or services.

It is NBF policy to comply fully with all securities legislation. NBF makes all required disclosures when acting as advisor, dealer or underwriter of the securities of National Bank of Canada and other related or connected issuers.

When NBF buys or sells securities with a subsidiary or affiliate, NBF ensures that the transaction price, along with any brokerage commission, is as good as or better than the price offered by an unaffiliated third-party broker in an arms-length transaction.

When buying or selling securities of a related issuer, you will be informed in writing of the relationship with the issuer of securities. In addition, we ensure that all dealings in securities of a related or connected issuer are in your best interests.

As part of its business as an investment dealer, NBF may act as "agent" or "principal" while buying or selling on behalf of its clients. In such instances, NBF will provide services in accordance with its normal practices and procedures, and follow all relevant legislations or regulations.

Related Dealers and Advisors

Since NBDB is a division of NBF, the related dealers and advisors are those of NBF.

Because of NBF affiliation with National Bank of Canada and its subsidiaries, NBF has put policies in place to deal with any potential conflict of interest, and to ensure we act in your best interests.

NBF is registered as an investment dealer and is an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of National Bank of Canada. National Bank of Canada is also an important shareholder of many dealers and advisors, meaning it directly or indirectly holds more than 20% of any class or series of voting securities.

You will find the list of related dealers and advisors on our website under the "Regulatory information" section at <https://nbdb.ca/regulation.html>.

NBF is therefore related to these dealers and advisors. Although there may be overlaps among the directors and officers of these companies, all of them operate as separate legal entities.

Both we and the related dealers or advisors named on our website may provide services to each other, including management and administrative service, as well as client referrals. These relationships are subject to certain legislation and industry regulations. We have also adopted internal policies and procedures to supplement these requirements, including our policies and procedures on confidentiality of information.

Other Related Companies

National Bank of Canada, NBF and their affiliated companies may hold an interest or participation in certain companies.

TMX Group Limited

National Bank Acquisition Holding Inc., one of NBF affiliates, owns or controls an equity interest in TMX Group Limited and has a nominee director serving on the board. In addition, NBF is a wholly-owned subsidiary of National Bank of Canada. From time to time, National Bank of Canada may enter into lending or financial arrangements with companies that are the subject of research reports or that are recommended by related entities.

At the present date, National Bank of Canada is a lender to TMX Group Limited under its credit facilities. As such, NBF may be considered to have an economic interest in TMX Group Limited. No person or company is required to obtain products or services from TMX Group Limited or its affiliates as a condition of doing business with TMX Group Limited or its affiliates.

TMX Group Limited is also the owner of Alpha Trading Systems Limited Partnership. Alpha Trading Systems Limited Partnership owns Alpha Exchange Inc., a stock exchange in Canada for the trading of securities.

We can execute transactions on your behalf on Alpha Exchange Inc. and enter orders into Alpha Exchange Inc.'s order book which cannot be immediately completed. In that role, we are subject to a number of regulatory obligations, including the requirement to diligently pursue the best price and best execution of each client order on the marketplace. Those obligations override the direct or indirect interest NBF has in the above companies.

Referring clients among members of National Bank group of companies

NBF and other members of the National Bank group of companies refer clients to each other according to the needs of the client provided the client has given us his/her consent. At all times, referrals made must prioritize clients' interests, regardless of the commission or benefits received. To ensure this, a referral program is in place to oversee these practices. If one member of the National Bank group of companies does not offer services that a client needs, that member will refer the client to another member of the group that does. An example of a common referral is when National Bank refers a client to us to establish a brokerage account.

Some business units in the National Bank group of companies, including NBF, are registered under securities legislation. If you are referred to a business unit for a product or service that requires registration, that business unit is responsible to you for the activities that require registration. An example would be if you were referred to NBF by National Bank for an investment transaction; NBF would be responsible for everything related to that transaction.

National Bank group of companies and referral arrangements

NBF enters into referral arrangements with the members of the National Bank group of companies listed below. NBF and these other members are completely separate from each other, but are all direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries of National Bank. Each member holds the appropriate registrations for the services they offer.

- National Bank of Canada is a federally regulated bank that offers a full array of banking services, including corporate and investment banking. It is an active player on international markets and, through its subsidiaries, is involved in securities brokerage, insurance and wealth management, as well as mutual fund and retirement plan management.

- National Bank Trust Inc. and Natcan Trust Company are wholly-owned subsidiaries of National Bank of Canada and offer fiduciary, asset management, custody and discretionary portfolio management services.

Referral Fees

When we refer a client to another member of the National Bank group of companies or when another member of the group refers a client to us, one company generally pays the other a commission.

It is important to note that these referral arrangements will not increase the costs or fees of services provided to the client. Therefore, the client will not pay more as a result of any referral arrangement between us and other members of the National Bank group of companies.

The commissions give us and other members of the National Bank group of companies incentive to refer clients to each other. Despite these commissions, clients' interests must always come first. The commissions will vary depending on which member of the National Bank group of companies is involved and whether the client is referred to or by us.

We and the other members of the National Bank group of companies have adopted policies and procedures to help identify any material conflict of interest which may arise from these referral arrangements. We will not be involved in or made aware of your specific dealings with the other member(s) of the National Bank group of companies, other than in reference to any referral fees generated, as well as any specific authorization you may grant the member(s) of the National Bank group of companies in your account opening form.

The referral commissions we and the members of the National Bank group of companies share may be modified from time to time, in accordance with the referral arrangements we and the other members of the National Bank group of companies may enter into with one another. In such cases, the list of referral arrangements and the information pertaining to the referral commissions will be updated and made available for consultation on NBDB website.

Our Employees

In the normal course of their activities, our directors, officers, employees, representatives and agents may find their personal interests are in potential conflict with those of a client.

We have developed a Code of Conduct and Ethics, a Compliance Manual and internal policies. Among other things, these documents state that our employees must never put their own interests ahead of their responsibilities toward clients or NBDB and that they should not under any circumstances exert undue pressure on clients to acquire a product or service. They also reinforce the fact that any existing or reasonably foreseeable material conflict of interest must be addressed in a manner that is fair, equitable, transparent, and in the clients' best interests.

Here are some highlights from these documents:

- Confidential information: Our employees are prohibited from using confidential information gained in the course of their duties for their personal benefit or for the benefit of a third party. This includes information related to clients, transactions or client accounts. Our employees may not exploit any situation for the purpose of obtaining an advantage of any kind that would compromise confidential client information;
- Gifts, entertainment and compensation: Employees are prohibited from accepting gifts, entertainment or compensation that could influence the decisions they make in the course of performing their duties and to compromise or give the impression of compromising their independence. All decisions must remain objective and impartial in the best interests of clients. Unless they have our prior approval, our employees may not receive any form of compensation other than what we pay them. We ensure that our employee compensation practices do not conflict with employees' obligations toward our clients;
- Other business activities and personal financial dealings: Employees are prohibited from engaging in activities that could interfere or be in conflict with their duties. We will not permit any employee to engage in business activities outside the scope of their duties without our prior approval and without ensuring that these activities do not compromise our clients' interests or harm our own reputation or that of the industry;
- Client priority rule: Our employees must offer top-quality service to clients and cannot give priority to their personal interests to the detriment of those of NBDB clients. For example, employees' brokerage accounts shall be monitored and subject to other exceptional measures, to ensure that serving the client remains employees' priority, as opposed to their own personal interests;
- Client order priority: The interests of clients must always be given priority over those of NBDB and its employees. When we receive two orders for the same security at the same price (or a better price), we always execute the client's order before our or our employees' order;
- Policy respecting errors: A policy has been established to supervise trading errors made by employees. Employees may not correct their own errors and must forward them to their immediate supervisor to be analyzed and handled;
- Referrals: On occasion, third parties may refer clients to us for our products and services. NBDB may also refer clients to third parties. In all cases, referrals should prioritize client's interests. When these referrals involve a commission, the commission must comply with existing regulations and be subject to the required disclosures to clients referred. This allows the client to make an informed decision about the referral and to consider any potential conflict of interest. Any agreement must be made in the best interests of clients and not for the purpose of receiving a commission;
- Research analyst activities: NBDB offers its clients research reports from external suppliers and companies affiliated with NBDB. Companies covered by the research made available to NBDB clients may have other business relationships with the companies that provide these research reports. When the companies that provide these research reports are affiliated with NBDB, they make sure that conflict of interest situations are properly monitored and subjected to the appropriate disclosures;
- Underwriter and market maker or other advisory role: NBDB may offer its clients securities for which a company affiliated with NBDB may act as market maker, underwriter, financial advisor or other. In some cases, the interests of the parties involved can differ from the interests of NBDB clients. The various roles which the companies affiliated with NBDB can play are governed by regulations and the interests of the client will always be prioritized;
- Allocation of securities: We have a policy that deals with the allocation of securities among our clients when there are not enough securities to meet the demand. This policy is intended to ensure fair distribution of securities and thus avoid that a client entitled to a quantity of securities does not receive his fair share;
- Tied selling: It is prohibited to require a client to purchase, use or invest in any product, service or security as a condition, or on terms that would appear to a reasonable person to be a condition, of supplying, continuing to supply or selling product, service or security;

I) Compensation and other benefits:

- Issuers of securities or any other related parties may compensate NBDB for the sale of their securities to our clients. Securities regulations require issuers to include information about this type of arrangement and the associated compensation in their offering document.
- In some instances, NBDB may be compensated indirectly, e.g., for transactions involving a foreign currency exchange, in which NBDB receives compensation based on the difference between the price clients pay for the currency and the price NBDB pays for the same currency or on the difference in interest rates between the one obtained by NBDB on the funds invested versus the interest rate paid to clients.
- In some cases, NBDB and certain companies affiliated with NBDB may receive compensation based on the markets on which the transactions of NBDB clients are carried out. The conditions under which NBDB client transactions are carried out are subject to regulations applicable to NBDB and its affiliated companies.
- NBDB or its affiliated companies may receive compensation for the purchase or sale of certain over-the-counter products. This compensation is based on the gross-up or mark-down applied by NBDB or its affiliated companies to the price paid by the client when purchasing securities or to him when selling securities.
- There may be situation in which NBDB will receive fees or payments from third parties on transactions it executes. Such fees and payments will not accrue to the clients' account and may be considered as part of NBDB's routing decision-making process, though this is not a sole determinant.

Other conflicts of interest

Other existing or reasonably foreseeable conflicts of interest may arise. We will continue to take the necessary steps to identify and respond to such situations fairly and reasonably, and update our policies as required. Where not avoided, any material conflicts of interest will be disclosed to you as they arise.

8. FEES RELATED TO THE PURCHASE, SALE OR HOLDING OF INVESTMENTS

8.1 Commissions and fees

Commission is the fee you pay when you buy or sell certain products. The commission is then added to the cost on a purchase and deducted from the proceeds for a disposition. These fees will be clearly indicated on the trade confirmation that you will receive following the execution of a transaction and will be billed in the currency of the account.

Stocks, exchange-traded funds (ETFs) and options

A commission is applicable for your transactions made over the phone when buying and selling stocks, ETFs or options. A fee per options contract is applicable to your transactions over the phone as well as online. No commission is applicable for stocks and Canadian and US ETFs transactions made online.

Investment funds

As stocks and ETFs, no commission is applicable for investment fund transactions made online and a commission is applicable for transactions made over the phone.

Moreover, know that all investment funds, including ETFs, charge management fees and/or operating expenses which are deducted directly from the fund's assets and used to pay the fund's expenses (portfolio management, record keeping, custody, reporting, etc.) and to generate a profit margin for the fund company. Management fees and operating expenses are generally charged as a percentage of the fund's assets under administration. This percentage is disclosed in the fund facts as well as in its prospectus.

For some funds, a portion of the management fee is remitted to the distributor on an ongoing basis for as long as the investor owns the fund. This portion of the fee is called a trailing commission or trailer fee. When a trailing commission is paid by the fund, the percentage used to calculate that amount is disclosed in the fund facts and its prospectus.

Securities regulations prohibit all order execution only dealers, such as NBDB, from offering investment funds with trailing commissions. However, it is possible that such funds hold in an account at another financial institution may be transferred to NBDB. In such a case, if NBDB is unable to switch these funds for another series of the same fund without trailing commission, then NBDB will deposit in your account the amount of the trailing commission that NBDB will receive from the investment fund company. For more information, please see our FAQ – Dealer Rebate and Transfer.

Certain investment fund companies may also charge fees in addition to the commissions payable to NBDB. These fees may include sales charges, early redemption fees, switch fees, etc. These fees, when applicable, are disclosed in the fund facts and its prospectus. It should be noted that NBDB does not offer investment funds with deferred sales charges.

Fixed-income securities

We offer, among other things, treasury bills, bonds, strip bonds, debentures, guaranteed investment certificates (GICs) and other money market instruments. The minimum purchase amount and the associated commission vary depending on the security. Commissions, if any, are included in the quoted price and will be communicated to you at the time of the transaction.

You will find the details of the applicable commissions on our website under the "Pricing" tab, "Commissions" page (<https://nbdb.ca/pricing/commissions.html>) or by contacting one of our representatives by phone.

8.2 Fees related to transactions executed on foreign exchanges

Some stock exchanges, securities commissions or foreign government agencies may impose taxes or apply trading, execution or settlement fees on financial transactions made in their country. In addition, intermediaries may charge additional custody fees for certain securities. In some cases, taxes are levied on dividend or deemed dividend payments and are shown in your account as such. These fees are kept by the stock exchange, securities commission, government or intermediary and are not shared with NBDB. Where applicable, these additional charges will appear on your trade confirmations and will be billed in the currency of the country where the transaction was executed.

8.3 Interest charges and borrowing fees

Interest rates are applicable on the credit and debit balances of your account, including borrowings in margin accounts, according to the rates in effect at NBDB. Thus, if you borrow against the value of the securities held in one of your accounts, you will be charged interest on the outstanding loan. Similarly, if you short sell securities, you may be charged interest and fees on the cost of borrowing securities to cover your short position.

You will find information on interest charges on our website under the "Pricing" tab, "Interest rates" page (<http://nbdb.ca/en/pricing/interest-rates/>). You can also contact one of our representatives by phone to obtain information on borrowing fees or for any other information.

The fees you pay, including administration fees, affect the performance of your investments over time, reducing gains or increasing losses.

9. ADMINISTRATION FEES

Like all financial institutions, we charge fees for specific services that complement our core business. These fees, which we call administration fees, are presented in our Commission and General Fee Schedule and on our website. Included in these fees is an annual administration fee, which covers all of the costs associated with opening and maintaining a brokerage account.

9.1 Annual Administration fee

An annual administrative fee may apply unless one of the exemption criteria is met. The calculation of the annual administration fee and the application of exemptions are carried out on all accounts held in the same root of accounts and not on each account. A client can have multiple account roots.

For more details on administration fees, including the annual administration fee and exemption criteria, visit our website under the "Pricing" tab, "General brokerage fees" page (<http://nbdb.ca/en/pricing/general-fees/>) or contact one of our representatives by phone.

Note that administration fees and other charges may change from time to time. We will let you know in advance of any change, as prescribed by the regulations that govern our industry.

- f) holder: the qualifying individual (other than a trust) named on the Application and, on the individual's death, the individual's spouse, if the spouse is then alive and:
 - i) is designated as a successor holder of the account;
 - ii) is a qualifying individual; and
 - iii) the account balance has not been transferred to their registered retirement savings account ("RRSP") or their registered retirement income fund ("RRIF"), or distributed to them as a beneficiary, by the end of the year following the year of death(the latter being also referred to as the "successor holder" herein).

- g) qualifying individual: an individual who, at a particular time
 - i) is a resident of Canada;
 - ii) is at least 18 years old of age; and
 - iii) did not, at any prior time in the calendar year or in the preceding four calendar years, inhabit as a principal place of residence a qualifying home within the meaning of subsection 146.6(1) of the Tax Act (in Canada or elsewhere) that was owned or co-owned by the individual or the individual's spouse at the particular time.

2. Purposes of the account. All contributions made to the account as well as any investment earnings generated or realized by the account and used and invested pursuant to the terms and conditions provided herein shall be used for the purpose of making distributions to the holder.

The account shall constitute a trust for the purposes of the Tax Act only, and for no other purpose.

The trustee, by accepting the Application, agrees to administer the account in accordance with the Tax Act and as set forth herein. Subject to registration of the account under the Tax Act, this declaration of trust shall take effect on the date of acceptance of the Application by the trustee.

3. Registration. The trustee shall file an election to register the qualifying arrangement as a FHSA pursuant to the Tax Act. For this purpose, the trustee is entitled to rely on the information provided by the holder in the Application. If registration of the account is refused, the Application and this declaration of trust shall be cancelled, and the assets in the account shall be returned to the holder.

4. Maximum participation period. The maximum participation period for the account begins when the holder first enters into a qualifying arrangement and ends at the end of the year following the year in which the earliest of the following events occurs:

- a) the 14th anniversary of the date the holder first enters into a qualifying arrangement;
- b) the holder reaches the age of 70 years; and
- c) the holder first makes a qualifying withdrawal (as defined below) from a FHSA.

5. When the account ceases to be a FHSA. The account ceases to be a FHSA and must be closed at:

- a) subject to paragraph b), the earliest of the following times:
 - i) the end of the maximum participation period of the last holder;

- ii) the end of the year following the year of the death of the last holder;
- iii) the time at which the account ceases to be a qualifying arrangement;
- iv) the time at which the account is not administered in accordance with the conditions in subsection 146.6(2) of the Tax Act.

b) a later time specified by the Minister in writing.

6. Contributions. The holder may make contributions to the account until the account is closed. However, contributions made after a qualifying withdrawal (as defined below) are not tax-deductible and do not give rise to qualifying withdrawals.

The holder is solely responsible for ensuring that such contributions are within the limits prescribed by the Tax Act. The Trustee makes no verification in this regard.

7. Investments. Assets in the account shall be invested in investments available under the account, in accordance with instructions given by the holder in a form satisfactory to the trustee. The holder is responsible for ensuring that investments made in or transferred to the account are and remain qualified investments within the meaning of the Tax Act. The trustee shall exercise the care, diligence and skill of a reasonably prudent person to minimize the possibility that a trust governed by the account holds a non-qualified investment.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the trustee may, in its sole discretion, refuse to accept any transferred asset or make any investment, including if it is of the opinion that the investment does not comply with its standards and policies. The trustee may also require the holder to provide supporting documentation prior to making certain investments.

As applicable, the trustee may reinvest all distributions of net investment income in investments of the same type unless otherwise instructed by the holder. The trustee may also authorize additional investments even if, in doing so, it is considered to have delegated its investment powers.

As applicable, voting rights attached to units, shares or any other securities held in the account may be exercised by the holder. For this purpose, the holder is hereby appointed the trustee's agent and attorney to execute and deliver proxies and other instruments in accordance with applicable laws.

8. Conditions and restrictions.

- a) The account shall be maintained for the exclusive benefit of the holder.
- b) While there is a holder of the account, no one other than the holder and the trustee shall have any rights relating to the amount and timing of distributions and the investing of funds in the account.
- c) No one other than the holder may make contributions to the account.
- d) The trust shall not be permitted to borrow money or other property for the purposes of the account.
- e) The holder agrees not to cause the account to be used for the carrying on of a business within the meaning of the Income Tax Act (Canada). The holder recognizes that frequent or large volume trading of securities (operations sometimes referred to as "day trading"), in particular, may constitute the carrying on of a business. Once it is established that the account is or possibly has been used to carry on a business, the holder agrees to hold sufficient assets in the account to pay any income taxes, penalties and interest. The holder agrees that the trustee may then, at its discretion and subject to its other rights and remedies, freeze the account until a clearance certificate is obtained from the tax authorities.
- f) The arrangement meets prescribed conditions.

9. Distributions. Subject to such requirements as the trustee may reasonably impose, the holder may withdraw assets from the account. Any withdrawal will be subject to withholding tax unless the withdrawal is a qualifying withdrawal within the meaning of the Tax Act.

A withdrawal is a qualifying withdrawal if the holder:

- a) is a resident of Canada on the date of the withdrawal and continues to be a resident of Canada until the earlier of the holder's death and the time at which the holder acquires the qualifying home;
- b) does not have an owner-occupied home within the meaning of paragraph 146.01(2)(a.1) of the Tax Act in the period that begins at the beginning of the fourth preceding calendar year that ended before the withdrawal and that ends on the 31st day before the withdrawal;
- c) entered into an agreement in writing before the date of the withdrawal for the acquisition or construction of the qualifying home before October 1 of the calendar year following the year of the withdrawal;
- d) has made a written request for payment in prescribed form stating the location of the qualifying home that they use as a principal place of residence or intend to use for that purpose not later than one year after its acquisition or construction; and
- e) did not acquire the qualifying home more than 30 days before the date of the withdrawal.

The holder may make one or more qualifying withdrawals of all or part of the assets in the account. Such withdrawals are limited to a single qualifying home for life and must be made no later than the 15th year after the first qualifying arrangement was entered into by the holder.

The holder may also withdraw assets in the account for the purpose of reducing the amount of tax otherwise payable by them under section 207.021 of the Tax Act. The trustee shall then dispose of all or a portion of the assets in the account and pay the holder an amount equal to the proceeds of disposition of such assets (net of any applicable disposition costs), less any payable charges and taxes (including interest and penalties) except as prohibited under the Tax Act.

10. Transfers to other accounts or plans. Subject to the conditions set out in the Tax Act and such requirements as the trustee may reasonably impose, the holder may ask the trustee to transfer to another FHSA of which they are the holder:

- a) all or a portion of the assets in the account; or
- b) an amount equal to the proceeds of disposition of all or a portion of the assets in the account (net of any applicable disposition costs), less any payable charges and taxes (including interest and penalties) except as prohibited under the Tax Act.

A transfer may also be made to an RRSP or RRIF of which the holder is the annuitant, but only up to the amount calculated according to the formula in paragraph 146.6(7)(c) of the Tax Act.

In addition, and subject to the conditions and limitations set out in the Tax Act, a transfer may be made to a FHSA of which the holder's spouse or former spouse is the holder or to an RRSP or RRIF of which that spouse or former spouse is the annuitant, in settlement of rights arising out of, or on a breakdown of, their marriage or common-law partnership.

11. Transfers from an RRSP. The holder may transfer assets from an RRSP of which they are the holder to the account subject to the conditions prescribed by the Tax Act and such requirements as the trustee may reasonably impose.

12. Withdrawal or transfer. If only part of the assets in the account are withdrawn or transferred, the holder may specify in their request which assets they wish to dispose of or transfer. Otherwise, the trustee disposes of the assets or transfers them in its sole discretion. The trustee is not required to cash in or transfer an investment prior to maturity.

13. Designation of successor holder and/or beneficiary (only in provinces and territories where permitted by law). If permitted by the applicable laws, the holder may designate their spouse as the successor holder of the account after their death in accordance with the Tax Act.

If permitted by applicable laws, the holder may also designate one or more beneficiaries to receive the proceeds of the account.

A designation may only be made, changed or revoked in compliance with the applicable laws by way of a written document or instrument, dated and signed by the holder, the form and content of which shall be acceptable to the trustee, and shall specifically identify the account.

Any designation or any change or revocation of a designation, validly made, shall take effect on the date it is received by the trustee. If more than one designation is received, the trustee shall consider only the designation duly signed by the holder with the most recent date.

In some provinces and territories, a designation may not be automatically revoked or changed by a marriage, new union, divorce or relationship breakdown and a new designation may be required. It is the holder's sole responsibility to get appropriate information regarding this and to make any necessary changes, as needed.

The trustee makes no representations and is not liable, including in the event of the invalidity or unenforceability, in whole or in part, of any designation or any change or revocation thereof by the holder.

14. Death of holder. Subject to the following and applicable laws, the trustee shall dispose of the assets in the account upon receipt of satisfactory evidence of the death of the holder. After deducting applicable taxes, costs of disposition, fees and other amounts payable, the trustee shall pay the net proceeds of disposition to the beneficiaries in a lump sum.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the trustee may instead, in the cases and on the terms set out in the Tax Act, transfer the assets to a person or persons entitled to them, such as a successor holder.

No transfer of assets or payment shall be made until the trustee has received such releases and other documents it may reasonably require.

15. Separate account and statements. The trustee shall maintain a separate account for the account and shall deliver to the holder annually or more frequently a statement containing such information as the trustee considers relevant.

The trustee shall deliver such information returns, notices and other documents as are required by the Tax Act to the holder and, if applicable, to the appropriate authorities.

16. Provisions relating to the trustee.

- a) Delegation of powers. The trustee may delegate any of its powers or duties to agents. In such event, the agents may receive all or part of the fees to which the trustee is entitled hereunder. Notwithstanding any such delegation, the ultimate responsibility for the administration of the account remains with the trustee.

- b) Resignation of trustee. The trustee may resign upon not less than 30 days' prior notice to the holder in the manner set forth in subsection 17f) provided a successor issuer has agreed to act in its stead. Such issuer must be a corporation resident in Canada and duly authorized by the applicable laws to act in such capacity.

- c) Fees and expenses. The trustee is entitled to receive such fees and other charges as it may prescribe from time to time, which may be charged directly to and deducted from the assets in the account. These fees and charges may be charged upon the termination of the account, the transfer or withdrawal of assets from the account or in any other situation as the trustee may reasonably determine. Such fees and expenses shall be disclosed to the holder in accordance with the applicable laws.

Similarly, the trustee is entitled to be reimbursed for all fees, costs and expenses incurred by it or its agents in connection with the administration of the account or the filing of any document required under the Tax Act. The holder shall reimburse the trustee for any overdraft resulting from the payment of such fees, costs and expenses within 30 days of the date the holder is notified thereof. Should the holder fail to make such timely repayment, the trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, dispose of the assets in the account without further notice to the holder and on such terms as the trustee shall determine and apply the proceeds of such disposition to the payment of the amounts owing.

The reimbursement of any taxes, interest or penalties payable in respect of the account may also, but only to the extent not prohibited by the Tax Act, be applied directly to, and deducted from, the assets in the account. The trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, dispose of the assets in the account without further action and on such terms as it may determine and apply the proceeds of disposition to the payment of such taxes, interest or penalties.

The holder shall be accountable to the trustee for any fees, expenses and other amounts due in excess of the assets in the account.

- d) Liability and compensation. At all times, the holder or their personal representatives or beneficiaries shall indemnify and hold harmless the trustee and the agent from and against all taxes, interest, penalties, assessments, fees (including legal and attorney fees), costs, expenses, claims and demands incurred, charged or made in connection with the account, to the extent not prohibited by the Tax Act.

The indemnity must be paid within 30 days of the claim made by the trustee or agent and may be paid out of the assets in the account.

Except as otherwise provided by applicable laws and herein, and without limiting the scope of other agreements and conditions with the holder, the trustee and the agent shall not be liable for any loss or damage suffered by the account, the holder, any beneficiary or any other person, resulting from, but not limited to:

- i) any loss in value of the assets in the account
- ii) any acquisition, holding, or disposition of an investment
- iii) any payment made from the account, liquidation or closure of the account, withdrawal, transfer or distribution of assets in the account (including any tax consequences of such transactions)
- iv) any excess contributions to the account
- v) any use of the account for any prohibited purpose, including the carrying on of a business within the meaning of the Tax Act, or any action taken by the trustee or agent in the event of such use
- vi) any performance or non-performance of instructions given to the trustee or the agent, unless the loss or damage is caused by bad faith, willful misconduct, gross negligence or, in Québec, the gross or intentional fault of the trustee or the agent.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall the trustee or the agent be liable for any special, indirect, punitive, incidental or consequential loss or damages whatsoever.

- e) Instructions. The trustee is entitled to rely on any instructions it receives from or believes in good faith to be given by the holder or any other person designated by the holder, whether such instructions are given in person, by mail, by facsimile or by any other electronic means.

17. Miscellaneous provisions.

- a) Modifications. The trustee may from time to time, in its sole discretion, vary the terms of the account (i) to comply with any requirement of applicable law, or (ii) by giving 30 days' prior written notice to the holder. However, such a change must not disqualify the account as a FHSA within the meaning of the Tax Act.

- b) Evidence. The trustee reserves the right to require the holder or any person claiming to be a beneficiary to furnish, on a timely basis and at their expense, satisfactory evidence of their age or of any fact relevant to their interest or right in or to the account.

- c) Enforceability. The terms hereof shall be binding upon the heirs, personal representatives and assigns of the holder and the successors and assigns of the trustee. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the account or the assets in the account are transferred to a successor issuer, the terms of such issuer's declaration of trust or agreement will govern the account thereafter.

- d) Declaration of non-residency. The holder undertakes to notify the trustee immediately if the holder is or becomes a non-resident of Canada.
- e) Interpretation. For the purposes hereof, wherever the context requires, words importing the masculine gender shall include the feminine and neuter genders and words importing the singular shall include the plural and vice versa.
- f) Notices. Any notice to the trustee hereunder shall be validly given if delivered or mailed to the address of the agent appearing on the Application or to such other address as the trustee may from time to time specify in writing. The notice shall become effective only on the day it is delivered to or received by the trustee. Any instruction, notice or information given in writing to the trustee will be considered valid only if it is in form satisfactory to the trustee.

Any notice, statement or receipt directed to the holder or any person entitled to receive notice under the account may be delivered electronically or by mail to the address as it appears on the registers of the trustee. The notice, statement or receipt is then deemed to have been given on the day of the electronic transmission or on the fifth day following the mailing. The holder expressly authorizes the trustee or the agent to notify them of any modification to this declaration of trust by a prior written notice, including a note on or included with their statement of account, and by posting the modified agreement on the trustee's or agent's website.

- g) Applicable laws. The account shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws applicable in the province or territory of residence of the holder indicated on the Application or otherwise provided by the holder, including the Tax Act.

In Québec, the account does not constitute a trust within the meaning of the Civil Code of Québec. In view of the special nature of this account, the rules of Title VII of Book IV of the Civil Code of Québec relating to the administration of the property of others do not apply to the trustee.

Assets from another registered plan may be transferred to the Plan, to the extent permitted by and in accordance with the Income Tax Act (Canada).
The Annuitant and the Contributing Spouse, if applicable, shall be solely responsible for ensuring that such contributions are within the limits prescribed by the Income Tax Act (Canada) as well as for determining the taxation years for which such contributions may be deducted for income tax purposes.
6. Excess Contributions. Within 90 days of receipt by the Trustee of a written request from the Annuitant, or the Contributing Spouse, if applicable, the Trustee shall pay the person who made the contribution the amount set out in such request, constituting all of any excess cumulative contributions paid into the Plan, over and above the limits prescribed by the Income Tax Act (Canada), in order to make it possible to reduce the amount of tax applicable to such cumulative excess contributions under Part X.1 of the Income Tax Act (Canada).
Unless otherwise instructed by the person making the request within 90 days from the receipt of the written request, the Trustee may dispose of the investments which it may select, in its entire discretion, for the purposes of such payment. The Trustee shall not be liable for any losses incurred by the Plan as a result of such disposition.
7. Investments. Until the Maturity Date, the Assets in the Plan are invested in qualified investments for Retirement savings plan within the meaning of the Income Tax Act (Canada) ("qualified investments"), in accordance with the instructions provided by the Annuitant to the Trustee, in a form deemed satisfactory by the Trustee. The Annuitant is responsible to ensure that investments made by the Plan are qualified investments for the Plan within the meaning of the Tax Legislation.
The Trustee shall reinvest all distributions of net income and net realized capital gains received by the Plan in respect of any particular investment in additional investments of the same type unless otherwise instructed by the Annuitant in a form deemed satisfactory by the Trustee. The Annuitant will not hold the Trustee liable with regard to the investment of the Assets in the Plan, whether or not made pursuant to instructions given by the Annuitant.

The Trustee shall exercise the care, diligence and skill of a reasonably prudent person to minimize the possibility that a trust governed by the Plan holds a non-qualified investment.

From time to time, the Trustee may authorize additional investments available for investment by the Plan notwithstanding that such investments may not be authorized by law for trustees or may be considered a delegation of the Trustee's investment duties.

The voting rights attached to the units or shares of mutual funds or other securities held under the Plan and credited to the Plan may be exercised by the Annuitant and, for this purpose, the Annuitant is hereby appointed as the Trustee's agent and attorney to execute and deliver proxies and/or other instruments in accordance with applicable laws.

- 8. Restrictions:
a) Assignment. The Annuitant acknowledges that this Plan, as well as the rights and benefits arising therefrom, may not be assigned or otherwise transferred.
b) Security. The Annuitant acknowledges that the Plan or the Assets in the Plan may not be given as security by mortgage or otherwise.
c) Effect. Any agreement which purports or attempts to contravene the restrictions contained in this Section 8 shall be null.
d) Withdrawal. The Plan does not provide for any payment before the Maturity Date except a refund of premiums in a lump sum or a payment to the Annuitant.

Subject to such reasonable requirements as the Trustee may impose, the Annuitant may at any time prior to the Maturity Date withdraw an amount from the Plan by making a request in a form deemed satisfactory by the Trustee. The Trustee shall then dispose of all or certain of the Assets in the Plan as indicated by the Annuitant and pay to the Annuitant an amount equal to the proceeds of disposition of such assets (net of applicable disposition costs), less any (i) charges and taxes (including interest and penalties) that are or may become payable by the Trustee or the Plan itself, and (ii) any amount required to be withheld therefrom on account of the Annuitant's own liability for taxes arising on a withdrawal of funds from the Plan. Withdrawals from a Plan with assets held in a locked-in arrangement may only be withdrawn as may be permitted by applicable laws as described in the applicable supplemental agreement.

Upon such payment, the Trustee shall be subject to no further liability or duty to the Annuitant with respect to the Assets in the Plan, or the portion thereof that has been disposed of and paid. The Trustee will issue to the Annuitant such information returns in respect of any withdrawal as required by applicable laws.

If only a portion of the Assets in the Plan is disposed of in accordance with the foregoing paragraph, the Annuitant may specify in his or her notice which assets he or she wishes the Trustee to dispose of, failing which the Trustee shall dispose of such assets as the Trustee, in its sole discretion, may deem appropriate for this purpose. The Trustee shall not be liable for any losses incurred as a result of such disposition.

- e) Transfers to Other Plans. Subject to such reasonable requirements as the Trustee may impose, the Annuitant may at any time request, in a form deemed satisfactory by the Trustee, that the Trustee:
i) transfers all or certain Assets in the Plan, or
ii) disposes of all or certain of the Assets in the Plan and transfers an amount equal to the proceeds of disposition of such assets (net of applicable disposition costs), less (i) any charges and taxes (including interest and penalties) that are or may become payable by the Trustee or the Plan itself, and (ii) any amount required to be withheld therefrom on account of the Annuitant's own liability for taxes arising on a transfer from the Plan to a registered pension plan or another registered plan, to the extent permitted by and in accordance with the Income Tax Act (Canada).

Such transfers shall take effect in accordance with applicable laws and within a reasonable time after all forms required to be completed in respect of such transfer have been completed and forwarded to the Trustee. Upon such transfer, the Trustee shall be subject to no further liability or duty to the Annuitant with respect to the Assets in the Plan, or the portion thereof, so transferred, as the case may be.

If only a portion of the Assets in the Plan is transferred in accordance with the foregoing paragraph, the Annuitant may specify in his or her notice which assets he or she wishes to so transfer or which assets he or she wishes to dispose of in order to effect such transfer, failing which the Trustee shall transfer or dispose of such properties as it, in its sole discretion, may deem appropriate for this purpose. The Trustee shall not be liable for any losses incurred as a result of such disposition or transfer.

- 9. Retirement Income.
a) Determination of Retirement Income. On the Maturity Date, the Trustee shall dispose of all the Assets in the Plan, and using the proceeds from such disposition, after having paid any applicable cost of disposition thereof and the charges, taxes and fees payable hereunder, the Trustee covenants to pay the Annuitant a retirement income, in compliance with the Income Tax Act (Canada). The Annuitant must select the retirement income from among the types of annuities offered by the Trustee and so inform the Trustee in writing not less than 90 days prior to the Maturity Date (the "Annuity"). The Trustee shall not be liable for any losses incurred as a result of such disposition.
Payments of the Annuity shall comply with the provisions of the Income Tax Act (Canada), and in particular, except as otherwise permitted under the Income Tax Act (Canada), the Annuity must be in any one or combination of the following forms:
i) a fixed term annuity, commencing on the Maturity Date, providing benefits for:
(a) the Annuitant's life; or
(b) the Annuitant's life, and to the Annuitant's Spouse after the Annuitant's death for a term of years equal to 90 minus either (i) the age in whole years of the Annuitant at the Maturity Date, or

- (ii) where the Annuitant's Spouse is younger than the Annuitant and the Annuitant so elects, the age in whole years of the Spouse at the Maturity Date; or

ii) a life annuity, commencing on the Maturity Date, with or without a guaranteed term commencing on the Maturity Date, not exceeding the term described in subparagraph i) above, payable (a) for the Annuitant's life, or (b) for the lives, jointly, of the Annuitant and the Annuitant's Spouse, and to the survivor of them for the survivor's life; and the Annuity will be subject to the following requirements:

iii) payments under an Annuity will be made in equal annual or more frequent periodic amounts until such time as there is a payment in full or partial commutation of the Annuity and, where such Annuity is partial, equal annual or more frequent periodic payments thereafter;

iv) any payment in full or partial commutation of an Annuity shall be made to the Annuitant or to his or her Spouse after the Annuitant's death;

v) the aggregate of the periodic payments in a year under an Annuity after the Annuitant's death shall not exceed the aggregate of the payments under the Annuity in a year before that death;

vi) any Annuity payable hereunder shall not be assigned in whole or part; and

vii) in the event of the Annuitant's death, each Annuity must be commuted if it becomes payable to someone other than the Annuitant's Spouse.

b) Election to Transfer to RRIF. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Annuitant, in the Annuitant's sole discretion may, by way of a written request to the Trustee not less than 90 days prior to the Maturity Date, request that the Assets in the Plan be transferred to a Registered Retirement Income Fund in compliance with the Income Tax Act (Canada).

c) Default Transfer to RRIF. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, if on the first day of November of the year in which the Annuitant reaches the prescribed age applicable to the most distant Maturity Date contemplated at Section 4 hereof, the Annuitant fails to notify the Trustee in writing in accordance with Paragraphs 9a) or 9b) above, the Maturity Date shall then be deemed to be the first day of December of the same year. In which case, the Trustee shall be deemed to have received instructions from the Annuitant to transfer the Assets in the Plan to a Retirement Income Fund issued by the Trustee in the Annuitant's name in accordance with the Income Tax Act (Canada). In such case, the designated beneficiary of such fund shall be the person named as the designated beneficiary hereunder, if any. A written notice of the transfer shall be furnished to the Annuitant.

d) No Advantage. The Annuitant, or a person with whom the Annuitant does not deal at arm's length, within the meaning of Tax Legislation, may not receive any benefit, payment or advantage, other than the benefits authorized under this Plan and the Tax Legislation.

10. Designation of Beneficiary (Not available for RSP in the Province of Quebec). If permitted by applicable legislation, the Annuitant may designate one or more beneficiaries to receive the proceeds payable under the provisions of the Plan; such designation may in particular be made in the Application, and it may be amended or revoked thereafter.

Any designation of beneficiary may be made, amended or revoked only in compliance with the applicable legislation by way of a written document or instrument, dated and signed by the Annuitant, the form and content of which shall be acceptable to the Trustee, and in particular shall specifically identify the Plan. Any designation of beneficiary shall come into force on the date it is received by the Trustee.

11. Death of Annuitant. Should the Annuitant die prior to the Maturity Date and before the Assets in the Plan are commuted into an Annuity or are rolled into a registered retirement income fund, upon receipt of evidence satisfactory to the Trustee thereof, subject to the Income Tax Act (Canada), the Trustee shall dispose of the Assets in the Plan, and after deducting any applicable tax, costs of such disposition, fees or any other amounts payable hereunder, the Trustee shall pay in a lump sum the net proceeds of such disposition to the Beneficiaries.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in cases permitted by the Income Tax Act (Canada), the Trustee may transfer the Assets in the Plan to one or more persons entitled thereto.

No such payment or transfer shall be made unless and until the Trustee receives releases and other documents as it may reasonably require.

12. Separate Account and Tax Information. The Trustee shall maintain a separate account for the Plan and shall furnish to the Annuitant annually or more frequently, a statement showing, for each period, the contributions paid to the Plan, their source, the assets and, if applicable, the income realized by the Plan, the fees debited from the account since the last statement, the balance of the account as well as any other information deemed relevant by the Trustee in its sole discretion.

The Trustee shall annually provide the Annuitant or the Contributing Spouse, as applicable, with information returns regarding the contributions paid to the Plan in accordance with the Income Tax Act (Canada).

The Annuitant and the Contributing Spouse, as applicable, will be solely responsible for ensuring that any deduction claimed for income tax purposes does not exceed the permitted deductions under the Income Tax Act (Canada).

Assets in the Plan held through a locked-in retirement account or other locked-in arrangements will be accounted for separately.

13. Provisions Regarding the Trustee.

a) Delegation of Powers. The Trustee may delegate to its agents, including National Bank Financial Inc. (the "Agent"), any of its administrative duties or of its powers to do specific things, and the delegate may receive all or part of the fees to which the Trustee is entitled hereunder, it being understood, however, that ultimate responsibility for administering the Plan shall remain vested in the Trustee.

b) Withdrawal of Trustee. The Trustee may withdraw as the administrator of the Plan upon 90 days' prior notice given to the Annuitant in the manner set out in Section 14.f) hereof and provided a replacement trustee has accepted the appointment and on condition such replacement is a body corporate resident in Canada duly authorized by the applicable laws to act in such capacity.

c) Fees and Expenses. The Trustee shall be paid the fees and other charges it prescribes from time to time, which may be directly charged against and deducted from the Assets in the Plan. The Trustee shall be entitled to charge fees upon the termination of the Plan, the transfer or withdrawal of Assets in the Plan or any other event which it may reasonably determine. These fees are disclosed to the Annuitant in accordance with the applicable laws. The Trustee shall be reimbursed for all fees, out-of-pocket expenses and costs incurred by it or its agents in connection with the administration of the Plan.

The reimbursement of any and all taxes, interest or penalty payable may be directly charged against and deducted from the Assets in the Plan but only as far as permitted by the applicable laws. The Trustee may then, without further notifying the Annuitant, dispose of Assets in the Plan, in whole or in part, on such conditions as it may determine and apply the proceeds of such disposition to the payment. The Trustee shall not be liable for any losses incurred as a result of such disposition.

d) Liability and Hold-Harmless. The Annuitant or the Beneficiaries will at all times indemnify the Trustee and its nominees, agents and correspondents in respect of any and all taxes, interest, penalties, assessments, fees, costs, overdrafts, expenses, liability, claims and demands resulting from the custody or administration of the Plan and will hold them harmless from all of the foregoing, except in the case of the gross negligence or wilful omission or misconduct of the Trustee. All such payment to the Trustee must be made within 30 days from the date the Annuitant is thereby notified.

Without limiting the scope of any other provision hereof, neither the Trustee nor any of its nominees, agents or correspondents shall be liable for any loss incurred by the Plan, by the Annuitant or by any Beneficiary, as a result of the acquisition, disposition or retention of any investment acquired at the direction of the Annuitant, as a result of any payment out of the Plan as requested by the Annuitant, as a result of the refusal to follow instructions that the Trustee, in its sole discretion, views are contrary to any provision hereto or to any applicable legislation, as a result of force majeure or irresistible force.

e) Instructions. The Trustee shall be empowered to follow the written instructions received from the Annuitant or any other person designated in writing by the Annuitant, whether transmitted by mail, facsimile machine or other electronic means.

14. Various Provisions.

a) Amendments. The Trustee may from time to time, in its sole discretion, amend the terms of the Plan (i) to satisfy the requirement of any applicable law, or (ii) by giving 30 days' notice in writing thereof to the Annuitant, provided, however, that any such amendments shall not disqualify the Plan as a registered retirement savings plan within the meaning of the Income Tax Act (Canada).

b) Evidence. The recording of the date of birth of the Annuitant and of his or her Spouse on the Application shall constitute sufficient certification of such age, subject to any further evidence which may be required thereof. The Trustee reserves the right to require the Annuitant, the Contributing Spouse or any person claiming to be a Beneficiary, as the case may be, to provide, at the appropriate time and at their own expense, satisfactory proof of age, of the survival or death of the Annuitant or of the Contributing Spouse and of their title or entitlement as a Beneficiary.

c) Cash. All the sums of money payable hereunder shall be payable in money which is legal tender in Canada.

d) Binding. The terms and conditions hereof will be binding upon the Annuitant's heirs and legal personal representatives and upon any successors and assigns of the Trustee. Notwithstanding that, if the Plan or the Assets in the Plan are transferred to a replacement trustee, then the terms of such replacement trustee's declaration of trust will govern thereafter.

e) Interpretation. Wherever the context so requires, a word used in the masculine gender shall include the feminine or neuter and vice versa, and the singular number shall include the plural and vice versa.

f) Notices. Any notice to the Trustee hereunder shall be validly given, if delivered or mailed postage prepaid to the Trustee at the Agent's address indicated in the Application, or to any other address which the Trustee may from time to time specify in writing, and it shall be effective only on the day that such notice was actually delivered or received by the Trustee. Any notice, statement or receipt given by the Trustee to the Annuitant, the Annuitant's Spouse or any person authorized to receive notice under the Plan, shall be validly given if mailed postage prepaid to the address recorded in the books of the Trustee with respect to the Plan, and any notice, statement or receipt so mailed shall be deemed to have been given on the day of mailing. Any written instruction, notice or information communicated to the Trustee will be considered valid only if it is in a form deemed satisfactory by the Trustee.

g) Applicable Legislation. The Plan shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the province in which the Annuitant resides, as shown in the Application and with the Tax Legislation.

The Plan shall not in any way constitute a trust within the meaning of the Civil Code of Quebec. Given the special nature hereof and the administrative rules created hereby, the rules of Title VII of Book IV of the Civil Code of Quebec relating to the administration of the property of third parties shall not apply to the Trustee.

No money that is not locked-in may be transferred or otherwise held under this Account.

3. Value of the Account: The fair market value of the assets held under the Account as determined by the Trustee in good faith shall be used to calculate the balance of the money and assets held under this Account for any particular time, including on the death of the Annuitant or on a transfer of assets from the Account. Any such determination by the Trustee shall be conclusive for all purposes hereof.

If the assets in a LIRA are transferred, the financial institution providing the LIRA must give the owner the information required by Section 4 of this Schedule, determined as of the date of the transfer.

5. Restrictions. The Annuitant agrees not to assign, charge, anticipate, or give as security assets in the Plan except as permitted under the Act.
6. Permitted transfers. Except as otherwise permitted in the Directive, assets in the Plan, including investment earnings, may not be transferred except:
- a) before December 31st in the year in which the Annuitant reaches the age at which a pension benefit is required to begin under the Tax Act, to the pension fund of a registered pension plan subject to the Act or to a registered pension plan subject to the pension benefits legislation of a designated province, as defined in the Act, or of Canada;

 - c) to purchase a Life Annuity Contract;
 - d) to a LIF;
 - e) to a LRIF.

The Annuitant's application for transfer must be in a form satisfactory to the Trustee.

7. Conditions for transfer. Before transferring assets from the Plan as mentioned in section 6, the Trustee ensures that the transfer is permitted under the Act and notifies the transferee in writing that the assets transferred are to be administered as a pension benefit under the Act. The transferee must agree to abide by such condition.

8. Permitted withdrawals. A withdrawal, commutation or surrender of assets in the Plan, in whole or in part, is not permitted and will be void, unless otherwise permitted by the Directive as in the following circumstances:

- a) Withdrawal for shortened life expectancy. The Annuitant may withdraw all or part of the assets as a lump sum or series of payments, in accordance with the Directive, if the following conditions are met:
- i) a medical practitioner certifies that due to mental or physical disability the life expectancy of the Annuitant is likely to be shortened considerably; and
 - ii) if the Annuitant is a former member of a pension plan, such payment may only be made if his or her Spouse has waived the joint and survivor pension entitlement in the form and manner required by the Superintendent of Pensions.

- b) Withdrawal of small balance. The Annuitant may withdraw a lump sum equal to the value of the entire Plan on application to the Trustee, in accordance with the Directive, if, at the time the Annuitant signs the application, the following conditions are met:

- i) the value of all assets in all LIFs, LRIFs and LIRAs which are held by him or her and subject to the Act is less than 10 percent of the year's maximum pensionable earnings under the Canada Pension Plan ("YMPE") for the calendar year in which the application is made;

or where the Annuitant has reached the earlier of age 55 or the earliest date on which he or she would have been entitled to receive a pension benefit under the plan from which assets were transferred, the value of all assets in all LIFs, LRIFs and LIRAs which are held by the Annuitant and subject to the Act is less than 40% of the YMPE for the calendar year in which the application is made;

and

- ii) within the same calendar year, the Annuitant has not made a withdrawal due to financial hardship from the Plan or, where part of the Plan corresponds to amounts transferred directly or indirectly from another LIRA, LIF or LRIF, the Annuitant has not made a withdrawal due to financial hardship from the original retirement savings arrangement.

The application for withdrawal is made on a form approved by the Superintendent of Pensions and, where the Annuitant is a former member of a pension plan, is accompanied by a waiver of the joint and survivor pension entitlement, in the form and manner required by the Superintendent.

- c) Withdrawal due to financial hardship. Subject to any requirements outlined in this subsection, the Annuitant may withdraw a lump sum not greater than the sum of the following amounts on application to the Trustee, in accordance with the Directive:

- i) an amount with respect to one of the following categories:
 - A) Low income: Where the Annuitant's expected total income for the one-year period following the date on which the application is signed, from all sources other than the withdrawal amount, is not more than 66.66% of the YMPE for the calendar year in which the application is signed, the amount determined by subtracting 75% of the expected total income from 50% of the YMPE for the calendar year in which the application for the withdrawal is signed;
 - B) Medical expenses : Where the Annuitant is unable to pay for medical expenses incurred or to be incurred by him or her, his or her Spouse, or a dependent of either and the medical expenses are not paid by and are not subject to reimbursement from any other source, the amount required to pay these medical expenses;
 - C) Disability-related expenses: Where the Annuitant is unable to pay for disability-related expenses incurred or to be incurred by him or her, his or her Spouse, or a dependent of either and the expenses are not paid by and are not subject to reimbursement from any other source, the amount required to pay these disability-related expenses;

- E) Rental arrears: Where the Annuitant or his or her Spouse has received a written notice in respect of arrears in the payment of rent for the principal residence of either and either could be evicted if the arrears remain unpaid, the amount required to pay the rental arrears; or

- F) First month's rent and security deposit: Where the Annuitant is unable to pay the first month's rent and the security deposit required to rent a principal residence for him or her or his or her Spouse, the amount required to pay the first month's rent and the security deposit;

and

- ii) the amount of any applicable tax required to be withheld by the Trustee.

The application is made on a form approved by the Superintendent of Pensions and must include any supporting documentation required by the Regulation, which are specified on the form. Where the Annuitant is a former member of a pension plan, the application must be accompanied by the written consent of his or her Spouse, in the form and manner required by the Superintendent. The Annuitant may apply for withdrawal once within a calendar year for each category of financial hardship described in paragraph i) above.

- d) Withdrawal by non-resident. The Annuitant may withdraw a lump sum equal to the value of the entire Plan, in accordance with the Directive, where he or she provides the Trustee with:

- i) a statutory declaration in accordance with the Evidence Act confirming he or she has resided outside Canada for at least 2 consecutive calendar years and is residing outside of Canada on the date of signing the declaration; and
- ii) where he or she is a former member of a pension plan, the written consent of his or her Spouse, in the form and manner required by the Superintendent of Pensions.

The Trustee may rely upon the information provided by the Annuitant in any application made pursuant to this section and such application constitutes sufficient authorization to withdraw assets from the Plan.

9. Joint pension. The pension benefit payable to a former member who has a Spouse at the date the pension commences is a joint and survivor pension benefit with at least 60% continuing to be payable to the survivor for life after the death of the former member unless the Spouse waives the entitlement in the form and manner required by the Superintendent of Pensions.

10. Death of the Annuitant: On the death of a former member of a pension plan who has a Spouse, the surviving Spouse, or where there is no surviving Spouse or the surviving Spouse has waived entitlement in the form and manner required by the Superintendent of Pensions, a designated beneficiary, or where there is no designated beneficiary, the estate of the Annuitant is entitled to a lump sum payment of the full value of the Plan. Where, however, the Annuitant is not a former member of a pension plan, the full value of the Plan is paid to the designated beneficiary or, where there is no such beneficiary, to the Annuitant's estate.

11. Marriage breakdown. This addendum is subject, with any necessary modifications, to the division of pension benefits on marriage breakdown provisions in Part VI of the Act.

12. Differentiation on the basis of sex. Where the commuted value of a pension benefit transferred to the Plan is determined in a manner that does not differentiate on the basis of sex, the Life Annuity Contract purchased with the assets in the Plan may not make such a differentiation.

13. Irregular payment. If assets are paid out contrary to the Act or the Directive, the Trustee will provide or ensure the provision of a pension benefit equal in value to the pension benefit that would have been provided had the assets not been paid out, unless the payment is attributable to a false declaration by the Annuitant.

14. Amendment. The Trustee may not amend this addendum except where it has given the Annuitant at least 90 days written notice and an explanation of the proposed amendment.

An amendment that would result in a reduction in the Annuitant's benefits under this addendum is permitted only where:

- a) the Trustee is required by law to make the amendment; and
- b) the Annuitant is entitled to transfer the balance in the Plan under the terms of the addendum that existed before the amendment is made.

When making such an amendment, the Trustee provides written notice to the Annuitant of the nature of the amendment and allows him or her at least 90 days after the written notice is given to transfer all or part of the balance in the Plan.

Notice under this section is sent either by mail to the Annuitant's address as set out in the records of the Trustee or, subject to receiving the authorization of the Annuitant, by electronic means provided that the e-communication is accessible by the Annuitant and capable of being retained to be usable for subsequent reference.

15. Representations and warranties of the Annuitant. The Annuitant represents and warrants the following to the Trustee:

- a) The assets transferred herein pursuant to the Act, the Regulation and the Directive are locked-in assets resulting directly or indirectly from the commuted value of a pension benefit;
- b) The provisions of the pension plan do not prohibit the Annuitant from entering into this addendum and, in the event that such prohibition does exist, the Trustee is not liable for the consequences to the Annuitant of executing this addendum nor for anything done in accordance with the provisions hereof; and
- c) The commuted value of the pension benefit transferred herein is not determined in a manner that differentiates on the basis of sex, unless otherwise indicated in writing to the Trustee.

16. Governing law. This addendum is to be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws applicable in the Province of Newfoundland and Labrador.

17. Effective date. This addendum takes effect on the date of transfer of assets into the Plan.

- a) Annual Payments. The total payments to the Annuitant out of the Fund for each year shall correspond to the amount selected by the Annuitant on the Application (such amount being no lower than the minimum amount and no higher than the maximum amount). The Annuitant may change the amount of the payment selected, upon written notice to the Trustee in a form deemed satisfactory by the Trustee, no later than January 1 of the year in which the change is to come into effect.

The new payment amount will be effective until another change is duly notified to the Trustee. If the amount selected by the Annuitant is lower than the minimum amount, the Trustee will nevertheless pay the minimum amount required under the Tax Act. If the amount selected by the Annuitant is higher than the maximum amount, the Trustee will nevertheless pay the maximum amount allowed under the Tax Act.

The amount selected by the Annuitant will then be amended to correspond to the minimum amount or maximum amount, as applicable, with respect to such year.

- b) Minimum Amount. In the year of the establishment of the Fund the “minimum amount” that is required to be withdrawn from the Fund is nil. For any other year, the “minimum amount” will be calculated in accordance with the Tax Act. The Annuitant may elect to base the minimum amount on his age or his Spouse’s age. The Annuitant may not make or change any such election after the first payment has been made under the Fund.
- c) Maximum Amount. The “maximum amount” that may be withdrawn from the Fund is the value of the Fund immediately prior to the payment date. In the case of a locked-in fund, the maximum amount specifically provided under the applicable laws may be lower.
- d) Frequency. The frequency of the payments shall correspond to the frequency selected by the Annuitant on the Application (not be less than one payment per calendar year or greater than one payment per calendar month), which the Annuitant may change from time to time upon written notice to the Trustee in a form deemed satisfactory by the Trustee.
- e) Cash Payment Only. The payments paid to the Annuitant will be in cash only. It is the Annuitant’s sole responsibility to ensure that there is sufficient cash in the Fund to make the payments in accordance with this Section 7. Nevertheless, if the Trustee, in its view, does not consider that the cash available in the Fund will be sufficient to make the payments in accordance with this Section 7, the Trustee may dispose of the investments which it may select, in its entire discretion, for the purposes of such payment, unless the Annuitant instructs the Trustee no later than 30 days prior to the payment date as to the specific investment the Annuitant wishes to be sold for cash to make the payment. The Trustee shall not be liable for any losses incurred by the Fund as a result of such disposition.
- f) Receipt of Payments. Payments to the Annuitant shall be deemed to have been made by effecting a direct money transfer to the bank account indicated on the Application or by the mailing of a cheque payable to the Annuitant in a postage prepaid envelope addressed to the Annuitant at the address indicated in the Application, or at such other address or bank account as may be furnished to the Trustee in writing.
- g) Withholding. The Trustee may deduct from payments any amount in respect of tax, interest, penalties, fees and expenses that are payable hereunder, under the Tax Legislation or other applicable laws.
- h) No Advantage. The Annuitant, or a person with whom the Annuitant does not deal at arm’s length, within the meaning of Tax Legislation, may not receive any benefit, payment or advantage, other than the benefits authorized under this Fund and the Tax Legislation.

8. Designation of Beneficiary (Not available for RIF in the Province of Quebec).

If permitted by applicable legislation, the Annuitant may designate one or more beneficiaries to receive the proceeds payable under the provisions of the Fund; such designation may in particular be made in the Application, and it may be amended or revoked thereafter.

Any designation of beneficiary may be made, amended or revoked only in compliance with the applicable legislation by way of a written document or instrument, dated and signed by the Annuitant, the form and content of which shall be acceptable to the Trustee, and in particular shall specifically identify the Fund. Any designation of beneficiary shall come into force on the date it is received by the Trustee.

9. Death of Annuitant.

- a) Successor Annuitant. The Annuitant may elect in accordance with the Tax Act that, upon his or her death, the Successor Annuitant becomes the new annuitant of the Fund and continue to receive the further payments provided for herein.

At the death of the Successor Annuitant, the payments provided for herein shall cease to be paid as soon as the Trustee receives notice of the Successor Annuitant’s death. Upon receipt of evidence satisfactory to the Trustee in respect of the right of entitlement of the Beneficiary, the Trustee shall dispose of the Assets of the Fund, and subject to the Tax Legislation and after deducting any applicable tax, costs of such disposition, fees or any other amounts payable hereunder, the Trustee shall pay in a lump sum the net proceeds of such disposition to the Beneficiary. No such payment shall be made unless and until the Trustee receives releases and other documents as it may reasonably require.

- b) Beneficiary of Lump Sum. If, at the death of the Annuitant, a Successor Annuitant is not designated, the payments provided for herein shall cease to be paid as soon as the Trustee receives notice of the Annuitant’s death. Upon receipt of evidence satisfactory to the Trustee in respect of the right of entitlement of the Beneficiary, the Trustee shall dispose of the Assets of the Fund, and subject to the Tax Legislation and after deducting any applicable tax, costs of such disposition, fees or any other amounts payable hereunder, the Trustee shall pay in a lump sum the net proceeds of such disposition to the Beneficiary. No such payment shall be made unless and until the Trustee receives releases and other documents as it may reasonably require.

10. Separate Account and Tax Information. The Trustee shall maintain a separate account for the Fund and shall furnish to the Annuitant annually or more frequently, a statement showing, for each period, the payments made to the Annuitant, the Assets of the Fund, the value of the Fund, any income realized by the Fund, the fees debited from the account since the last statement, the balance of the account as well as any other information deemed relevant by the Trustee in its sole discretion.

The Trustee shall annually provide the Annuitant with information returns regarding the payments made to the Annuitant out of the Fund in accordance with the Tax Act.

The Annuitant will be solely responsible for ensuring that any deduction claimed for income tax purposes does not exceed the permitted deductions under the Tax Act.

Assets of the Fund held through a locked-in retirement income fund, a life income fund or other locked-in arrangements will be accounted for separately.

11. Assets Transferred. Upon receipt of written instructions from the Annuitant in a form deemed satisfactory by the Trustee, the Trustee shall transfer, in the manner prescribed by the Tax Act, all or part of the Assets of the Fund or an amount equivalent to the value of such assets at that time, as well as all information necessary for the continuance of the Fund, to any person legally authorized to become an issuer under another RRIF of which the Annuitant may be the beneficiary, after deducting all amounts to be retained in application of paragraphs 146.3(2)(e.1) or 146.3(2)(e.2) of the Tax Act, as applicable, as well as any fees and disbursements to which the Trustee is entitled.

Under a written separation agreement or according to an order or a decision handed down by a competent tribunal concerning the division of property, in the event of the breakdown of the Annuitant's marriage or common-law partnership, the Annuitant may request the transfer of property from the Fund to a RRIF or to a RRSP of which his or her Spouse or former Spouse is the annuitant.

Such transfers shall take effect in accordance with applicable laws and within a reasonable time after all forms required to be completed in respect of such transfer have been completed and forwarded to the Trustee. Upon such transfer, the Trustee shall be subject to no further liability or duty to the Annuitant with respect to the Assets of the Fund, or the portion thereof, so transferred, as the case may be. It is however understood that the Trustee shall never be obligated to cash in any investment before its term, prior to completing its transfer.

12. Provisions Regarding the Trustee.

- a) Delegation of Powers. The Trustee may delegate to its agents, including National Bank Financial Inc. (the “Agent”), any of its administrative duties or of its powers to do specific things, and the delegate may receive all or part of the fees to which the Trustee is entitled hereunder, it being understood, however, that ultimate responsibility for administering the Fund shall remain vested in the Trustee.
- b) Withdrawal of Trustee. The Trustee may withdraw as the administrator of the Fund upon 90 days' prior notice given to the Annuitant in the manner set out in Section 13.f) hereof and provided a replacement trustee has accepted the appointment and on condition such replacement is a body corporate resident in Canada duly authorized by the applicable laws to act in such capacity.
- c) Fees and Expenses. The Trustee shall be paid the fees and other charges it prescribes from time to time, which may be directly charged against and deducted from the Assets of the Fund.

The Trustee shall be entitled to charge fees upon the termination of the Fund, the transfer or withdrawal of Assets of the Fund or any other event which it may reasonably determine. These fees are disclosed to the Annuitant in accordance with the applicable laws. The Trustee shall be reimbursed for all fees, out-of-pocket expenses and costs incurred by it or its agents in connection with the administration of the Fund.

The reimbursement of any and all taxes, interest or penalty payable may be directly charged against and deducted from the Assets of the Fund but only as far as permitted by the applicable laws. Trustee may then, without further notifying the Annuitant, dispose of Assets of the Fund, in whole or in part, on such conditions as it may determine and apply the proceeds of such disposition to the payment. The Trustee shall not be liable for any losses incurred as a result of such disposition.

- d) Liability and Hold-Harmless. The Annuitant or the beneficiaries will at all times indemnify the Trustee and its nominees, agents and correspondents in respect of all taxes, interest, penalties, assessments, fees, costs, overdrafts, expenses, liability, claims and demands resulting from the custody or administration of the Fund and will hold them harmless from all of the foregoing, except in the case of the gross negligence or wilful omission or misconduct of the Trustee. All such payment must be made within 30 days from the date the Annuitant is thereby notified.

Without limiting the scope of any other provision hereof, neither the Trustee nor any of its nominees, agents or correspondents shall be liable for any loss incurred by the Fund, by the Annuitant or by any Beneficiary, as a result of the acquisition, disposition or retention of any investment acquired at the direction of the Annuitant, as a result of any payment out of the Fund as requested by the Annuitant, as a result of the refusal to follow instructions that the Trustee, in its sole discretion, views are contrary to any provision hereto or to any applicable legislation, as a result of force majeure or irresistible force.

- e) Instructions. The Trustee shall be empowered to follow the written instructions received from the Annuitant or any other person designated in writing by the Annuitant, whether transmitted by mail, facsimile machine or other electronic means.

13. Various Provisions.

- a) Amendments. The Trustee may from time to time, in its sole discretion, amend the terms of the Fund (i) to satisfy the requirement of any applicable law, or (ii) by giving thirty (30) days' notice in writing thereof to the Annuitant, provided, however, that any such amendments shall not disqualify the Fund as a RRIF within the meaning of the Tax Act.
- b) Evidence. The recording of the date of birth of the Annuitant or of his or Spouse on the Application shall constitute sufficient certification of such age, subject to any further evidence which may be required thereof. The Trustee reserves the right to require the Annuitant, the Successor Annuitant or any person claiming to be a Beneficiary, as the case may be, to provide, at the appropriate time and at their own expense, satisfactory proof of age, of the survival or death of the Annuitant or of the Successor Annuitant and of their title or entitlement as a Beneficiary.
- c) Cash. All the sums of money payable hereunder shall be payable in money which is legal tender in Canada.
- d) Binding. The terms and conditions hereof will be binding upon the Annuitant's heirs and legal personal representatives and upon any successors and assigns of the Trustee. Notwithstanding that, if the Fund or the Assets of the Fund are transferred to a replacement trustee, then the terms of such replacement trustee's Declaration of Trust will govern thereafter.
- e) Interpretation. Wherever the context so requires, a word used in the masculine gender shall include the feminine or neuter and vice versa, and the singular number shall include the plural and vice versa.
- f) Notices. Any notice to the Trustee hereunder shall be validly given, if delivered or mailed postage prepaid to the Trustee at the Agent's address indicated in the Application, or to any other address which the Trustee may from time to time specify in writing, and it shall be effective only on the day that such notice was actually delivered or received by the Trustee. Any notice, statement or receipt given by the Trustee to the Annuitant, the Annuitant's Spouse or any person authorized to receive notice under the Fund, shall be validly given if mailed postage prepaid to the Agent at the address recorded in the books of the Trustee with respect to the Fund, and any notice, statement or receipt so mailed shall be deemed to have been given on the day of mailing. Any written instruction, notice or information communicated to the Trustee will be considered valid only if it is in a form deemed satisfactory by the Trustee.
- g) Applicable Legislation. The Fund shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the province in which the Annuitant resides, as shown in the Application and with the Tax Legislation.

The Fund shall not in any way constitute a trust within the meaning of the Civil Code of Quebec. Given the special nature hereof and the administrative rules created hereby, the rules of Title VII of Book IV of the Civil Code of Quebec relating to the administration of the property of third parties shall not apply to the Trustee.

Such notice expires on December 31 of the year to which it relates. - d) Non-Resident. The Annuitant may withdraw all or part of the money in the Fund as a lump sum, upon application by the Annuitant to the Trustee in accordance with subsections 28.4 of the Regulation, if the following conditions are met:

Where necessary, this product is increased by any income provided for under Subsection 5a) and paid to the Annuitant during the year but prior to payment of the income payable as a consequence of the application and reduced by any income paid to the Annuitant, during the same period, from another LIF or from a supplemental pension plan that offers the variable benefits referred to in Subdivision 3 of Division II.1 of the Regulation [22.1].

The amount “N” may not be lower than the lower limit determined in accordance with Subsection 4a) herein.

In addition, for purchasers aged 95 years or over, element “T” is equal to 1.

This estimated amount may vary in particular because of withdrawals made and returns on the fund;

- b) Withdrawals: Despite the amount thus estimated, all or part of the balance of the life income fund of a purchaser 55 years of age or over may, unless the term of the investments has not expired, be paid in one or more instalments, on request to the Trustee made at any time during a fiscal year; Such payment is made, as applicable, regardless of the amount of the life income or of the payment in one or more instalments determined or receives by the purchaser for the fiscal year.

6. Payments: Except as permitted by the law, payments to the Annuitant hereunder shall be determined under the Declaration and shall comply with the following conditions:

- a) Commencement of Payments: Payments out of the Fund must begin:
- i) no earlier than the earliest date on which the Annuitant is entitled to receive a pension under any pension plan from which money was transferred into the Fund directly or indirectly.
 - ii) despite subsection i), Payments must begin no earlier than the date on which the Annuitant reaches 55 years of age, if none of the money in the Fund is derived directly or indirectly, from a pension benefit provided in respect of any employment of the Annuitant; and
 - iii) no later than the end of the second Fiscal Year of the Fund.
- b) Annual Payments: The Annuitant must notify the Trustee of the amount (such amount being no lower than the Minimum Amount and no higher than the Maximum Amount) to be paid out of the Fund each year no later than January 1 of the year to which it relates. Such notice expires on December 31 of the year to which it relates. - c) Maximum Amount: The amounts of income paid during a Fiscal Year out of the Fund must not exceed the greatest of the following amounts:
- 1) The investment earnings, including any unrealized capital gains or losses, of the Fund in the previous Fiscal Year.

The following interest rate assumptions are to be used to determine the amount "F":
 - i) The interest rate for each of the first 15 Fiscal Years of the period referred to in the definition of "F" is the greater of 6% and the nominal rate of interest on long-term bonds issued by the Government of Canada for November of the year before the beginning of the Fiscal Year, as determined from the Canadian Socio-Economic Information Management System (CANSIM) series V122487 compiled by Statistics Canada and available on the website maintained by the Bank of Canada; and
 - ii) For the 16th and each subsequent Fiscal Year of the period referred to in the definition of "F", the interest rate is 6%.

Such transfer shall be made within a period of 30 days from the receipt of written instructions from the Annuitant in a form deemed satisfactory by the Trustee, or within a reasonable time with respect to the transfer of assets held as securities whose term of investment extends beyond the 30-day period.

Once the transfer is completed in compliance with all conditions relating thereto, the Trustee and the Agent shall be released from any liability in connection with this Fund to the extent of the transfer.

Notwithstanding the above, the Annuitant agrees that Trustee shall never be obliged to refund in advance the investments held under the Fund for purposes of transfer and may, at its entire discretion, either (i) delay the requested transfer, or (ii) where such investments consist of identifiable and transferable securities, effect the transfer by the remittance of such securities.

8. Conditions for Transfer: Before transferring money from this Fund as mentioned in section 7 hereof, the Trustee shall advise the transferee in writing that the amount transferred must be administered in accordance with the Act and this Regulation, and the transferee must agree to administer such amount transferred in accordance with the Act and the Regulation.

Fund (calculated on the day of the transfer).

If such assets fund consist of identifiable and transferable securities, the Trustee may transfer the securities with the consent of the Annuitant.

Despite the above, if the assets are transferred into the Fund from another LIF governed by Schedule 1.1 of the Regulation or from a LRIF, the Annuitant cannot make a withdrawal or transfer described in the present paragraph 10a) unless the transfer into the Fund was made in accordance with the terms of an order under the Family Law Act, a family arbitration award or a domestic contract.

Issuer’s duties when transferring to another vehicle

Before transferring an amount from the LIF to another vehicle, the Issuer must

(i) in the case of a transfer to a LIRA or another LIF, the issuer of the LIRA or LIF is registered with the Superintendent of Pensions as an issuer of that type of vehicle,

- you must notify the Issuer in writing of the total amount to be paid to you out of the LIF for the year.
- 17(2) If the Issuer guarantees a rate of return for the LIF for a period longer than a year, your notice for the first year of the period must specify the total amount to be paid in each year that ends at or before the end of the period for which the rate of return is guaranteed.
- 17(3) The amount that you set as your income from the LIF for the year must be
- a) not less than the minimum amount that the Income Tax Act (Canada) requires you to be paid; and
 - b) subject to that minimum, not more than the maximum amount determined for the year under section 18.
- Subject to those minimum and maximum amounts (which will be set out in your latest annual statement), you may revise the amount at any time during the year by written notice to the Issuer.
- 17(4) If you fail to specify the amount to be paid for the year, the Issuer will pay you the minimum amount before the end of the year.
- 17(5) In the first year of this contract, you are not required to receive a minimum amount unless the amount transferred to this contract was transferred from another LIF. In that case, in the year of the transfer you will continue to be paid amounts that you were being paid for that year under the other LIF.

Your maximum annual income from the LIF

- 18(1) Subsection (2) applies when the rate of return for the LIF is not guaranteed beyond the end of the year. If the LIF’s rate of return is guaranteed for a multi-year period, subsection (2) applies to the first year of the period, and subsection (3) applies to each year of the period after the first year.
- 18(2) The total of the amounts to be paid to you out of the LIF for a fiscal year must not exceed the amount determined by clause (a) or the amount determined by (b), whichever is greater:
- a) the amount determined by the following formula:
Maximum amount = F × (B + T)
In this formula,
F is the factor (from the table at the end of this addendum) that corresponds to the reference rate for the year and your age at the end of the immediately preceding year,
B is the balance of the LIF at the beginning of the year,
T is the total of all amounts transferred to the LIF in the year, other than amounts transferred directly or indirectly from another LIF, an LRIF or a VB account;
 - b) the total of
 - (i) the income and gains, net of losses, earned in the LIF in the immediately preceding year, and
 - (ii) 6% of all amounts transferred to the LIF during the current year, other than amounts transferred directly or indirectly from another LIF, an LRIF or a VB account.
- 18(3) The total of the amounts to be paid to you out of the LIF for the second or subsequent fiscal year of a multi-year period for which the LIF’s rate of return is guaranteed must not exceed the maximum determined by the following formula:
- Maximum amount = M × B₁/B₂
- In this formula,
- M is the maximum amount payable to you for the first year of the multi-year period (which is determined under subsection 18(2);
 - B₁ is the LIF balance at the beginning of year;
 - B₂ is the reference balance as at the beginning of the year, calculated as
 - a) the reference balance as at the beginning of the previous year, minus M, plus
 - b) the amount determined under clause (a) multiplied by the reference rate for the year, if it is one of the first 16 fiscal years of the LIF, or by 6% in any other case.
- For the purpose of clause (a), in determining the maximum payable in the second year of the multi-year period, the reference balance as at the beginning of the previous year is the LIF balance at the beginning of the period.

- 18(4) If the maximum determined under subsection (2) or (3) is less than the minimum amount that the Income Tax Act (Canada) requires you to receive from the LIF, you must be paid the minimum.
- 18(5) For the purpose of subsections (2) and (3), “reference rate” for a year means the greater of 6% and the percentage determined for the year by
- a) adding 0.5% to the average yield as at November 30 of the immediately preceding year, as published by the Bank of Canada in the Bank of Canada Review and expressed as a percentage, for Government of Canada long-term bonds identified as CANSIM Series V 122487; and
 - b) converting the rate determined under clause (a), based on semi-annual compounding of interest, to an effective annual rate of interest, and rounding it to the nearest multiple of 0.5%.

DEATH OF OWNER

Death benefit

- 19(1) Upon your death, the balance in the LIF is payable as a death benefit to the person entitled to it under this section.
- 19(2) The death benefit is payable to your surviving spouse or common-law partner if
- a) you are a member-owner;
 - b) immediately before your death, you and your spouse or common-law partner were not living separate and apart from each other by reason of a breakdown in your relationship; and
 - c) the Issuer has not received a death benefit waiver signed by the spouse or common-law partner that has not been revoked.
- 19(3) For the purpose of clause (2)(c), “death benefit waiver” includes the following:
- a) a waiver under section 20;
 - b) a waiver under subsection 21(26.3) of the Act in respect of a pension benefit credit to which the balance in this LIF is directly or indirectly attributable; and
 - c) a waiver under section 10.25 of Division 2 of Part 10 of the regulation in respect of a LIRA to which the balance in this LIF is directly or indirectly attributable.
- 19(4) If the death benefit is not payable to your surviving spouse or common-law partner, it is payable to your designated beneficiary or, if you have not designated a beneficiary, to your estate.
- 19(5) Within 90 days after receiving the necessary documentation, the Issuer must pay the death benefit as a lump sum to the person entitled to it. But, if that person is your spouse or common-law partner, he or she may, subject to the Income Tax Act (Canada), direct the Issuer to transfer it directly to an RRSP or RRIF, and the Issuer must transfer it accordingly.

Death benefit waiver

- 20(1) Your spouse or common-law partner may, before or after your death, waive his or her entitlement or potential entitlement to the death benefit in accordance with section 10.41 of Division 2 of Part 10 of the regulation (death benefit under LIF). Upon request by you or your spouse or common-law partner, the Issuer must provide the information and form required for the waiver.
- 20(2) A death benefit waiver may be revoked by you and your spouse or common-law partner by signing a joint revocation of that waiver and filing it with the Issuer.

LUMP SUM WITHDRAWALS

Overview — when you may withdraw balance

- 21(1) Under the regulation, you might be entitled to withdraw the balance of your LIF in the following circumstances:
- a) you are a non-resident of Canada for the purposes of the Income Tax Act (Canada) and have had that status for at least two years (see Division 5 of Part 10 of the regulation);
 - b) the total of the Manitoba locked-in money in all your LIFs, LIRAs and LRIFs, plus interest at the prescribed rate to the end of the year in which you turn 65, is less than 40% of the YMPE for the year in which you apply for the withdrawal (see Division 6 of Part 10 of the regulation);
 - c) you have a shortened life expectancy of less than two years (see Division 7 of Part 10 of the regulation);
 - d) you are 55 or older and you make a request for a once in a lifetime withdrawal of up to 50% of the balance in your LIFs and pension plan, if the plan permits (see Division 4 of Part 10 of the regulation).
- 21(2) If any of these circumstances apply to you, you may request the Issuer to provide the information and forms necessary for you to apply for a withdrawal. Subject to the regulation, the Issuer must provide you with the relevant information and forms.

 - (ii) for the 2nd year of the period, the LIF balance at the beginning of the 1st year of the period

- b) Annual payments. The amount of income payable during each Fiscal Year is, subject to the minimum and maximum amounts provided below, set by the Annuitant each year by notice to the Trustee no later than January 1. A notice expires on December 31 of the Fiscal Year to which it relates. If the Annuitant does not provide such notice in a given Fiscal Year, the minimum amount provided in subsection c) below is deemed to be the amount paid for that year.
- c) Minimum amount. The amount of income paid out of the Fund during a Fiscal Year must not be less than the minimum amount prescribed for RIF under the Tax Act.
- d) Maximum amount. The amount of income paid out of the Fund during a Fiscal Year must not exceed the “maximum” amount, being the greater of (i) and (ii) as follows:
- i) the amount calculated using the formula
- $$\frac{C}{F}$$
- in which
- C = the value of the assets in the Fund at the beginning of the Fiscal Year.
- F = the present value, at the beginning of the Fiscal Year, of a pension of which the annuity payment is $1 payable at the beginning of each Fiscal Year between that date and the 31st day of December of the year in which the Annuitant reaches 90 years of age; and
- ii) the amount of the investment earnings, including any unrealized capital gains or losses, of the Fund in the immediately previous Fiscal Year.

The value “F” above must be established at the beginning of each Fiscal Year of the Fund using an interest rate as follows:

- i) for the first 15 years after the date of the valuation, the greater of 6% per year and the percentage obtained on long-term bonds issued by the Government of Canada for the month of November preceding the date of the valuation, as compiled by Statistics Canada and published in the Bank of Canada Review under identification number V 122487 in the CANSIM System; and
- ii) for the sixteenth and each subsequent year, a rate of 6% per year.
- e) Maximum amount for first Fiscal Year. For the initial year of the Fund, the “maximum” determined in subsection d) and section 7 is adjusted in proportion to the number of months in that Fiscal Year divided by 12, with any part of an incomplete month counting as one month.
- f) Maximum amount on transfer from another LIF or LRIF. If a part of the Fund corresponds to assets transferred directly or indirectly from another LIF or LRIF of the Annuitant during the Fiscal Year, the “maximum” determined in subsection d) and section 7 is deemed to be zero in respect of the part transferred in.
- g) Maximum amount on transfer from other financial institutions. Notwithstanding subsection f), the Trustee may allow money to be paid to the Annuitant provided that the total amount received by the Annuitant from all financial institutions in respect of that part transferred in during the Fiscal Year does not exceed the “maximum” in subsection d) and section 7 for that part. In this case, the Trustee must receive information, in writing, from the prior financial institution(s) which confirms the amount already paid in the Fiscal Year in respect of that part of the Fund.
- h) Adjustments to payments due to transfers-in. If in any Fiscal Year, an additional transfer is made to the Fund from a source other than a LIF or LRIF, the withdrawal of an additional amount from the Fund will be allowed in that Fiscal Year. This additional amount will not exceed the maximum amount that would have been allowed had the additional amount been transferred into a separate LIF.

7. Additional temporary income

- a) Entitlement. Subject to subsection b), the Annuitant is entitled to receive additional temporary income where:
- i) the maximum amount of income the Annuitant is entitled to receive for the calendar year in which the application is made, calculated as “B” hereunder, is less than 40% of the Year’s Maximum Pensionable Earnings under the Canada Pension Plan (“YMPE”) for the calendar year in which the application is made; and
- ii) the Annuitant has not reached his or her 65th birthday at the beginning of the Fiscal Year in which he or she makes application for additional temporary income.
- b) Maximum temporary income. The amount of the additional temporary income paid out of the Fund in a Fiscal Year must not exceed the “maximum” using the formula
- $$A - B$$
- in which
- A = 40% of the YMPE for the calendar year in which an application is made.
- B = the maximum amount of income the Annuitant is entitled to receive from all LIFs, LRIFs, Life Annuity Contracts and pension plans governed by the Act or the pension benefits legislation of a designated province, as defined in the Act, or of Canada, excluding income from a pension under the Canada Pension Plan and excluding any withdrawals due to financial hardship from a retirement savings arrangement, for the calendar year in which the application is made.
- c) Application form. An application for additional temporary income must be:
- i) on a form approved by the Superintendent of Pensions;
- ii) where the Annuitant is a former member of a pension plan, accompanied by the written consent of his or her Spouse; and
- iii) submitted to the Trustee at the beginning of the Fiscal Year of the Fund, unless otherwise permitted by the Trustee.

8. Permitted withdrawals. A withdrawal, commutation or surrender of assets in the Fund, in whole or in part, is not permitted and will be void, unless otherwise permitted by the Directive as in the following circumstances:

- a) Withdrawal for shortened life expectancy. The Annuitant may withdraw all or part of the assets as a lump sum or series of payments, in accordance with the Directive, if the following conditions are met:
- i) a medical practitioner certifies that due to mental or physical disability the life expectancy of the Annuitant is likely to be shortened considerably; and
- ii) where the Annuitant is a former member of a pension plan, such payment may only be made if his or her Spouse has waived the joint and survivor pension entitlement in the form and manner required by the Superintendent of Pensions.
- b) Withdrawal of small balance. The Annuitant may withdraw a lump sum equal to the value of the entire Fund on application to the Trustee, in accordance with the Directive, if, at the time the Annuitant signs the application, the following conditions are met:
- i) he or she has reached the earlier of age 55 or the earliest date on which the member or former member would have been entitled to receive a pension benefit under the plan from which assets were transferred;

- ii) the value of all assets in all LIFs, LRIFs and LIRAs which are held by him or her and subject to the Act is less than 40% of the YMPE for the calendar year in which the application is made;
- iii) within the same Fiscal Year, he or she has not elected to receive additional temporary income under section 7 or, where part of the Fund corresponds to assets transferred directly or indirectly from another LIF or LRIF, he or she has not elected to receive additional temporary income from that LIF or LRIF; and
- iv) within the same calendar year, he or she has not made a withdrawal due to financial hardship under subsection c) from the Fund or, where part of the Fund corresponds to assets transferred directly or indirectly from a LIRA, another LIF, or a LRIF, he or she has not made a withdrawal due to financial hardship from the original retirement savings arrangement.

The application is made on a form approved by the Superintendent of Pensions and, where the Annuitant is a former member of a pension plan, is accompanied by a waiver of the joint and survivor pension entitlement in the form and manner required by the Superintendent.

c) Withdrawal due to financial hardship. Subject to any requirements outlined in this subsection, the Annuitant may withdraw a lump sum not greater than the sum of the following amounts on application to the Trustee, in accordance with the Directive:

- i) an amount with respect to one of the following categories:
- A) Low income: Where the Annuitant’s expected total income for the one-year period following the date on which the application is signed, from all sources other than the withdrawal amount, is not more than 66.66% of the YMPE for the calendar year in which the application is signed, the amount determined by subtracting 75% of the expected total income from 50% of the YMPE for the calendar year in which the application for the withdrawal is signed;
- B) Medical expenses: Where the Annuitant is unable to pay for medical expenses incurred or to be incurred by him or her, his or her Spouse, or a dependent of either and the medical expenses are not paid by and are not subject to reimbursement from any other source, the amount required to pay these medical expenses;
- C) Disability-related expenses: Where the Annuitant is unable to pay for disability-related expenses incurred or to be incurred by him or her, his or her Spouse, or a dependent of either and the expenses are not paid by and are not subject to reimbursement from any other source, the amount required to pay these disability-related expenses;
- D) Mortgage payments: Where the Annuitant or his or her Spouse has received a written notice in respect of a default on a mortgage that is secured against the principal residence of either which will result in foreclosure or power of sale if the default is not rectified, the amount required to rectify the default;
- E) Rental arrears: Where the Annuitant or his or her Spouse has received a written notice in respect of arrears in the payment of rent for the principal residence of either and either could be evicted if the arrears remain unpaid, the amount required to pay the rental arrears; or
- F) First month’s rent and security deposit: Where the Annuitant is unable to pay the first month’s rent and the security deposit required to rent a principal residence for him or her or his or her Spouse, the amount required to pay the first month’s rent and the security deposit;

- ii) the amount of any applicable tax required to be withheld by the Trustee.
- The application is made on a form approved by the Superintendent of Pensions and must include any supporting documentation required by the Regulation, which are specified on the form. Where the Annuitant is a former member of a pension plan, the application must be accompanied by the written consent of his or her Spouse, in the form and manner required by the Superintendent. The Annuitant may apply for withdrawal once within a calendar year for each category of financial hardship described in paragraph i) above.

d) Withdrawal by non-resident. The Annuitant may withdraw a lump sum equal to the value of the entire Fund, in accordance with the Directive, where he or she provides the Trustee with:

- i) a statutory declaration in accordance with the Evidence Act confirming he or she has resided outside Canada for at least 2 consecutive calendar years and is residing outside of Canada on the date of signing the declaration; and
- ii) where he or she is a former member of a pension plan, the written consent of his or her Spouse, in the form and manner required by the Superintendent of Pensions.

The Trustee may rely on the information provided by the Annuitant in any application made pursuant to this section and such application constitutes sufficient authorization to withdraw assets from the Fund.

9. Permitted transfers. Except as otherwise permitted in the Directive, assets in the Fund, including investment earnings, may not be transferred except:

- a) before December 31st in the year in which the Annuitant reaches the age at which a pension benefit is required to begin under the Tax Act, to the pension fund of a registered pension plan subject to the Act or to a registered pension plan subject to the pension benefits legislation of a designated province, as defined in the Act, or of Canada;
- b) before December 31st in the year in which the Annuitant reaches the age at which a pension benefit is required to begin under the Tax Act, to a LIRA;
- c) to purchase a Life Annuity Contract that meets the requirements of the Superintendent of Pensions;
- d) to another LIF; or
- e) to a LRIF.

The Annuitant’s application for transfer must be in a form satisfactory to the Trustee.

10. Conditions for transfer. Before transferring assets from the Fund as mentioned in section 9, the Trustee ensures that the transfer is permitted under the Act and notifies the transferee in writing that the assets transferred are to be administered as a pension benefit under the Act. The transferee must agree to abide by such condition.

11. Joint pension. The pension benefit payable to a former member who has a Spouse at the date the pension commences is a joint and survivor pension benefit with at least 60% continuing to be payable to the survivor for life after the death of the former member unless the Spouse waives the entitlement in the form and manner required by the Superintendent of Pensions.

12. Death of the Annuitant. On the death of a former member of a pension plan who has a Spouse, the surviving Spouse, or where there is no surviving Spouse or the surviving Spouse has waived entitlement in the form and manner required by the Superintendent of Pensions, a designated beneficiary, or where there is no designated beneficiary, the estate of the member or former member is entitled to a lump sum payment of the full value of the Fund. Where, however, the Annuitant is not a former member of a pension plan, the full value of the Fund is paid to the designated beneficiary or, where there is no such beneficiary, to the Annuitant’s estate.

- 13. Marriage breakdown. This addendum is subject, with any necessary modifications, to the division of pension benefits on marriage breakdown provisions in Part VI of the Act.
- 14. Irregular payment. If assets are paid out contrary to the Act or the Directive, the Trustee will provide or ensure the provision of a pension benefit equal in value to the pension benefit that would have been provided had the assets not been paid out, unless the payment is attributable to a false declaration by the Annuitant.

15. Amendment. The Trustee may not amend this addendum except where it has given the Annuitant at least 90 days written notice and an explanation of the proposed amendment.

An amendment that would result in a reduction in the Annuitant’s benefits under this addendum is permitted only where:

- a) the Trustee is required by law to make the amendment; and
- b) the Annuitant is entitled to transfer the balance in the Fund under the terms of the addendum that existed before the amendment is made.

When making such an amendment, the Trustee provides written notice to the Annuitant of the nature of the amendment and allows him or her at least 90 days after the written notice is given to transfer all or part of the balance in the Fund.

Notice under this section is sent either by mail to the Annuitant’s address as set out in the records of the Trustee or, subject to receiving the authorization of the Annuitant, by electronic means provided that the e-communication is accessible by the Annuitant and capable of being retained to be usable for subsequent reference.

Subject to registration of the Plan under the Tax Legislation, the trust arrangement shall take effect on the date of its acceptance by the Trustee on the Application.
3. Registration – The Promoter will apply for registration of the Plan as a RESP in the required form containing the required information in accordance with the RESP Legislation. The Promoter has the final responsibility for the Plan and its administration.
4. Beneficiary – Unless otherwise permitted by Applicable Tax Legislation, the Subscriber may designate as Beneficiary only those person who's social insurance number is provided at the time of designation if they are resident in Canada when the designation is made or if the designation is made in conjunction with a transfer from another RESP under which they were beneficiaries immediately before the transfer.
- The Promoter must, within 90 days of an individual becoming a Beneficiary under the Plan, notify that individual (or, where the individual is under 19 years of age at that time and ordinarily resides with a parent or is maintained by a Public Primary Caregiver, that parent or PPC) in writing of the existence of the Plan and of each Subscriber's name and address.
- The Subscriber may, by notice in writing to the Promoter, revoke the designation of a Beneficiary and designate another Plan Beneficiary. If more than one such instrument is delivered to the Promoter, the one dated most recently will apply.

A newly designated Beneficiary may inherit the contribution history of the Beneficiary he replaces and Subscribers are the only responsible for the penalty tax which may then arise from RESP Legislation.

5. Contributions – Contributions in the Plan can only be made by or for a Subscriber towards the Beneficiary, including those made by transfer from another RESP.

Contributions made by transfer from another RESP are not permitted if an Accumulated income payment has already been paid out from the other RESP. The Beneficiary for whom the contributions are made must be resident in Canada and must have a valid social insurance number at the time each contribution is made. Each Subscriber must inform the Promoter immediately regarding all modification in the Beneficiary’s address or residence.

Contributions can be made to the Plan until the end of the 31st year following the year in which the Plan was set up (or until the end of the 35th year following the year in which the Plan was set up if the Plan is a Specified Plan) whatever the age of the Beneficiary.

Each Subscriber is responsible for ensuring that the total of all contributions made in a year for the Beneficiary does not exceed the RESP Lifetime Limit under the RESP Legislation, notably if the Beneficiary is also the beneficiary of other RESP. The Promoter and the Trustee have no responsibility regarding the respect of this obligation.

In spite of the foregoing paragraph, the Promoter may at its sole discretion, but without being held to it, refuse a contribution made by a Subscriber for any reason.

A contribution does not include an amount paid into the plan under or because of

- a) the Canada Education Savings Act or a designated provincial program, or
- b) any other program that has a similar purpose to a designated provincial program and that is funded, directly or indirectly, by a province, other than an amount paid into the plan by a public primary caregiver in its capacity as subscriber under the plan.
6. Contribution refund. Subject to reasonable requirements set by the Promoter, to RESP Legislation and to the extent of the Assets of the Plan, deduction made of any fees and charges that may be applicable to the Plan and of all previous payment; the Subscriber request to the Promoter in a form deemed satisfactory by the Promoter:
- a) refund of a contribution made to the Plan, except a contribution made by way of transfer from another RESP;
- b) refund of a amount that was paid by way of a transfer from another RESP, where the amount would have been a refund of payments under the other plan if it had been paid at that time directly to the subscriber under the other RESP;

All such contribution refund made to one of the Subscriber or both, as the case may be, constitute for the Promoter and the Trustee a valid and sufficient release regarding the contribution refund paid out of the Plan

7. Repayment of CES Amounts paid into the Plan. The Promoter and the Trustee can not assess whether the Beneficiary is entitled to a CES Amount. Upon request from a Subscriber, and presentation of all forms required under Applicable CES Legislation duly completed and signed, the Promoter may present an application for the Plan to receive CES amounts in the name of the Beneficiary.

Each Subscriber is responsible for ensuring that the total of CES amounts received by a Beneficiary do not exceed the maximum amount prescribed by Applicable CES legislation, notably if the Beneficiary is also the beneficiary of other RESP. The Promoter and the Trustee are not liable with regards to CES amount receiving above the limits established.

Repayments of CES amounts paid into the Plan pursuant to an error will be made by the Promoter when required by the Minister of HRSDC in accordance with Applicable CES Legislation. Such Repayment of CES Amount will be withdrawn directly from the Assets of the Plan.

8. Transfers. Subject to reasonable requirements set by the Promoter and when permitted by RESP Legislation, the Subscriber request in writing a total or partial transfer of the Assets of the Plan (including CES amounts) into another RESP.

Neither the Promoter nor the Trustee are liable for the transfers made upon the Subscriber’s request, notably if they give rise to adverse tax consequences or result in repayment of CES amounts paid into the Plan or limitations on future payments of CES amounts into the Plan for the Beneficiary under the Plan.

Once a transfer is completed in accordance with RESP Legislation, the Promoter and the Trustee no longer hold any responsibility towards the Assets of the Plan transferred

9. Liquidation of Plan Assets. For the purpose of making payments in this agreement, the Promoter will liquidate the investments that make up the Assets of the Plan according to each Subscriber’s instructions. Failing instructions from Subscribers, the Promoter, shall liquidate such investments as it shall deem appropriate in the circumstances, at its sole discretion. Notwithstanding any other terms of this agreement, payment from the proceeds of a non-redeemable fixed term investment of the Plan will not be made until the investment has matured, except as may otherwise be permitted by the issuer.

10. Investments. The Assets in the Plan shall be invested in investments which are available for investment in the Plan, in accordance with instructions given by the Subscriber from time to time in a form deemed satisfactory by the Promoter.

The investments shall be made in compliance with RESP Legislation and it is solely the Holder’s responsibility to ensure that each investment made by the Plan is a “qualified investment” for a RESP within the meaning of the Applicable Tax Legislation. The Trustee may reinvest all distributions of net income and net realized capital gains received by the Plan in respect of any particular investment in additional investments of the same type unless otherwise instructed by the Subscriber.

From time to time, the Promoter may authorize additional investments available for investment by the Plan notwithstanding that such investments may not be authorized by law for trustees or may be considered a delegation of the Trustee’s investment duties. The Trustee and the Promoter shall not be liable with regard to the investment of the Assets of the Plan, whether or not made pursuant to instructions given by the Holder.

It is the sole responsibility of the Subscriber to choose from the investments that are available for investment in the Plan and to determine whether any investment should be bought, sold or retained as part of the Plan.

The Subscriber acknowledges that any failure to comply with Applicable Tax Legislation may result fees, penalties and even in revocation of the Plan by the Minister of National Revenue. Failing instructions from Subscribers, the Promoter shall at its sole discretion liquidate any investments as it shall deem appropriate to pay any amount that must be paid by with regards to the Plan.

11. Educational Assistance and Other Payments. Subject to conditions established by the RESP Legislation and any reasonable requirements that the Promoter may set, each Subscriber may request a payment out of the Assets of the Plan such amount or amounts needed for either:

Subject to registration of the Plan under the Tax Legislation, the trust arrangement shall take effect on the date of its acceptance by the Trustee on the Application.

3. Registration – The Promoter will apply for registration of the Plan as a RESP in the required form containing the required information in accordance with the RESP Legislation. The Promoter has the final responsibility for the Plan and its administration.
4. Beneficiaries – Beneficiaries must be related by blood or adoption to a living Subscriber or have been related in the same way to a deceased original Subscriber. An individual who is 21 years of age or older cannot be designated as Beneficiary under the Plan, unless the individual was the beneficiary of another Family RESP immediately before his designation.

Unless otherwise permitted by Applicable Tax Legislation, the Subscriber may designate as Beneficiary only those person who's social insurance number is provided at the time of designation if they are resident in Canada when the designation is made or if the designation is made in conjunction with a transfer from another RESP under which they were beneficiaries immediately before the transfer.

The Promoter must, within 90 days of an individual becoming a Beneficiary under the Plan, notify that individual (or, where the individual is under 19 years of age at that time and ordinarily resides with a parent or is maintained by a Public Primary Caregiver, that parent or PPC) in writing of the existence of the Plan and of each Subscriber's name and address.

The Subscriber may, by notice in writing to the Promoter, revoke the designation of a Beneficiary and designate other Plan Beneficiaries. If more than one such instrument is delivered to the Promoter, the one dated most recently will apply.

A newly designated Beneficiary may inherit the contribution history of the Beneficiary he replaces and Subscribers are the only responsible for the penalty tax which may then arise from RESP Legislation.

5. Contributions – Contributions in the Plan can only be made by or for a Subscriber towards a Beneficiary, including those made by transfer from another RESP.

Contributions made by transfer from another RESP are not permitted if an Accumulated income payment has already been paid out from the other RESP.

The Beneficiary for whom the contributions are made must be resident in Canada and must have a valid social insurance number at the time each contribution is made. Each Subscriber must inform the Promoter immediately regarding all modification in a Beneficiary's address or residence.

No Contributions can be made to the Plan after the end of the 31st year following the year in which the Plan was set up, other than Contributions that are made of transfers from another RESP.

No Contributions can be made to the Plan for a Beneficiary who is 31 years of age or older, other than Contributions that are made of transfers from another RESP that allows more than one beneficiary at a time, in accordance with Applicable Tax Legislation.

Each Subscriber is responsible for ensuring that the total of all contributions made in a year for a Beneficiary does not exceed the RESP Lifetime Limit under the RESP Legislation, notably if a Beneficiary is also the beneficiary of another RESP. The Promoter and the Trustee have no responsibility in that respect.

In spite of the foregoing paragraph, the Promoter may at its sole discretion, but without being held to it, refuse a contribution made by a Subscriber for any reason.

A contribution does not include an amount paid into the plan under or because of (a) the Canada Education Savings Act or a designated provincial program, or (b) any other program that has a similar purpose to a designated provincial program and that is funded, directly or indirectly, by a province, other than an amount paid into the plan by a public primary caregiver in its capacity as subscriber under the plan.

- a) refund of a contribution made to the Plan, except a contribution made by way of transfer from another RESP;
- b) refund of a amount that was paid by way of a transfer from another RESP, where the amount would have been a refund of payments under the other plan if it had been paid at that time directly to the subscriber under the other RESP;

All such contribution refund made to one of the Subscriber or both, as the case may be, constitute for the Promoter and the Trustee a valid and sufficient release regarding the contribution refund paid out of the Plan.

7. Repayment of CES Amounts paid into the Plan. The Promoter and the Trustee can not assess whether a Beneficiary is entitled to a CES Amount. Upon request from a Subscriber, and presentation of all forms required under Applicable CES Legislation duly completed and signed, the Promoter may present an application for the Plan to receive CES amounts in the name of a Beneficiary.

Each Subscriber is responsible for ensuring that the total of CES Amounts received by a Beneficiary does not exceed the maximum amount prescribed by Applicable CES legislation, notably if a Beneficiary is also the beneficiary of another RESP. The Promoter and the Trustee are not liable with regards to CES amount receiving above the limits established.

Repayments of CES amounts paid into the Plan pursuant to an error will be made by the Promoter when required by the Minister of HRSDC in accordance with Applicable CES Legislation. Such Repayment of CES Amount will be withdrawn directly from the Assets of the Plan.

8. Transfers. Subject to reasonable requirements set by the Promoter and when permitted by RESP Legislation, the Subscriber request in writing a total or partial transfer of the Assets of the Plan (including CES amounts) into another RESP.

Neither the Promoter nor the Trustee are liable for the transfers made upon the Subscriber's request, notably if they give rise to adverse tax consequences or result in repayment of CES amounts paid into the Plan or limitations on future payments of CES amounts into the Plan for a Beneficiary under the Plan.

Once a transfer is completed in accordance with RESP Legislation, the Promoter and the Trustee no longer hold any responsibility towards the Assets of the Plan transferred.

9. Liquidation of Plan Assets. For the purpose of making payments in this agreement, the Promoter will liquidate the investments that make up the Assets of the Plan according to each Subscriber's instructions. Failing instructions from Subscribers, the Promoter, shall liquidate such investments as it shall deem appropriate in the circumstances, at its sole discretion.

Notwithstanding any other terms of this agreement, payment from the proceeds of a non-redeemable fixed term investment of the Plan will not be made until the investment has matured, except as may otherwise be permitted by the issuer.

10. Investments. The Assets in the Plan shall be invested in investments which are available for investment in the Plan, in accordance with instructions given by the Subscriber from time to time in a form deemed satisfactory by the Promoter.

The investments shall be made in compliance with RESP Legislation and it is solely the Holder's responsibility to ensure that each investment made by the Plan is a "qualified investment" for a RESP within the meaning of the Applicable Tax Legislation. The Trustee may reinvest all distributions of net income and net realized capital gains received by the Plan in respect of any particular investment in additional investments of the same type unless otherwise instructed by the Subscriber.

From time to time, the Promoter may authorize additional investments available for investment by the Plan notwithstanding that such investments may not be authorized by law for trustees or may be considered a delegation of the Trustee's investment duties. The Trustee and the Promoter shall not be liable with regard to the investment of the Assets of the Plan, whether or not made pursuant to instructions given by the Holder.

It is the sole responsibility of the Subscriber to choose from the investments that are available for investment in the Plan and to determine whether any investment should be bought, sold or retained as part of the Plan. The Subscriber acknowledges that any failure to comply with Applicable Tax Legislation may result fees, penalties and even in revocation of the Plan by the Minister of National Revenue. Failing instructions from Subscribers, the Promoter shall at its sole discretion liquidate any investments as it shall deem appropriate to pay any amount that must be paid by with regards to the Plan.

11. Educational Assistance and Other Payments. Subject to conditions established by the RESP Legislation and any reasonable requirements that the Promoter may set, each Subscriber may request a payment out of the Assets of the Plan such amount or amounts needed for either:

- a) the date the Subscriber or Subscribers designate from time to time;

- i) Survivor: means the individual who is, immediately before the Holder's death, the spouse or common-law partner of the Holder as defined for the purposes of any provision of the Income Tax Act (Canada) respecting a tax-free savings account.
- j) Holder: means the individual (other than a trust) who is at least 18 years of age and whose name is indicated as such in the Application, and after his or her death, the Survivor, as provided under the definition of the term "holder" under subsection 146.2(1) of the Income Tax Act (Canada).
- k) Applicable legislation: means the laws and regulations as described in subsection 14 h) herein.

2. Establishment of Account. By means of the payment of a contribution or the transfer of a sum of money or any other property specified in the Application, the Holder establishes with the Trustee a tax-free savings account. All contributions made to the Account, as well as any income, capital gains or other gains of any nature whatsoever, generated or realized by the Account, and held in the Account by the Trustee, and used, invested or otherwise applied pursuant to the terms and conditions provided herein, shall be used for the purpose of making distributions to the Holder.

The Account shall constitute a trust for the purposes of Tax Legislation only, excluding any other purpose whatsoever.

The Trustee, by inscribing its acceptance upon the Application, agrees to administer the Account in the manner stipulated herein. Subject to registration of the Account under the Tax Legislation, this declaration of trust shall take effect on the date of acceptance by the Trustee of the Application.

3. Registration. The Trustee shall file an election to register the qualifying arrangement as a tax-free savings account pursuant to the Tax Legislation. If any of the authorities concerned refuses such registration, the Application and this declaration of trust shall be cancelled, and the sums or property transferred to the Account shall be reimbursed by cheque, transfer or any other method of payment provided by the Trustee for that purpose.

4. Contributions. The Holder may make contributions to the Account at any time. The Holder shall be solely responsible for ensuring that such contributions are within the limits prescribed by the Tax Legislation and the Trustee makes no verification in this respect.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Trustee can, without being held to it, refuse a contribution of the Holder for any motive and at any time.

5. Investments. The Assets in the Account shall be invested in investments which are available for investment by the Account in accordance with instructions given by the Holder to the Trustee from time to time in a form deemed satisfactory by the Trustee. The investments shall be made in compliance with the Tax Legislation. The Holder is responsible to ensure that each investment made by the Account is a "qualified investment" for the Account within the meaning of the Tax Legislation.

The Trustee shall exercise the care, diligence and skill of a reasonably prudent person to minimize the possibility that a trust governed by the Plan holds a non-qualified investment.

From time to time, the Trustee may authorize additional investments available for investment by the Account notwithstanding that such investments may not be authorized by law for trustees or may be considered a delegation of the Trustee's investment duties.

The Holder will not hold the Trustee liable with regard to the investment of the Assets of the Account, whether or not made pursuant to instructions given by the Holder.

6. Conditions and Restrictions:

- a) The Account shall be maintained for the exclusive benefit of the Holder, and while there is a holder of the Account, no one other than the Holder and the Trustee shall have any rights relating to the amount and timing of distributions and the investing of funds. This provision shall not apply where such application would be inconsistent with the security contemplated in Section 9.
- b) No one other than the Holder may make contributions to the Account.
- c) The Trustee shall not be permitted to borrow money or other property for the purposes of the Account.

7. Distributions. Subject to such reasonable requirements as the Trustee may impose, the Holder may withdraw an amount from the Account by making a request in a form deemed satisfactory by the Trustee. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, distributions may be made, among other things, to reduce the amount of tax otherwise payable by the Holder under section 207.02 or 207.03 of the Income Tax Act (Canada). The Trustee shall then dispose of all or certain of the Assets as indicated by the Holder and pay to the Holder an amount equal to the proceeds of disposition of such assets (net of applicable disposition costs), less any charges and taxes (including interest and penalties) that are or may become payable by the Trustee or the Account itself, as permitted by Tax Legislation.

Upon such payment, the Trustee shall be subject to no further liability or duty to the Holder with respect to the Assets in the Account, or the portion thereof that has been distributed and paid. The Trustee will issue to the Holder such information returns in respect of any withdrawal as required by Applicable legislation.

If only a portion of the Assets in the Account is disposed of in accordance with the foregoing paragraph, the Holder may specify in his or her notice which assets he or she wishes the Trustee to dispose of, failing which the Trustee shall dispose of such assets as the Trustee, in its sole discretion, may deem appropriate for this purpose. The Trustee shall not be liable for any losses incurred as a result of such disposition.

8. Transfers to Other Accounts. Subject to such reasonable requirements as the Trustee may impose, the Holder may at any time request, in a form deemed satisfactory by the Trustee, that the Trustee transfers to another tax-free savings account of which he or she is the Holder:

- a) all or a portion of the Assets in the Account, or
- b) an amount equal to the proceeds of disposition of all or portion of the Assets in the Account (net of applicable disposition costs), less any charges and taxes (including interest and penalties) that are or may become payable by the Trustee or the Account itself.

Subject to the Tax Legislation, a transfer may also be made to a tax-free savings account whose holder is the spouse or former spouse or the common-law partner or former common-law partner of the Holder in settlement of rights arising out of, or on the breakdown of, the marriage or common-law partnership.

The Trustee shall carry out all transfer requests, except in the event of inconsistency with the security contemplated in Section 9. Such transfers shall take effect in accordance with Applicable legislation and within a reasonable time after all forms required to be completed in respect of such transfer have been completed and forwarded to the Trustee. Upon such transfer, the Trustee shall be subject to no further liability or duty to the Holder with respect to the Assets in the Account, or the portion thereof, so transferred, as the case may be.

If only a portion of the Assets in the Account is transferred in accordance with the foregoing paragraph, the Holder may specify in his or her notice which assets he or she wishes to so transfer or which assets he or she wishes to dispose of in order to effect such transfer, failing which the Trustee shall transfer or dispose of such properties as it, in its sole discretion, may deem appropriate for this purpose. The Trustee shall not be liable for any losses incurred as a result of such disposition or transfer.

9. Security. The Holder of the Account may use his or her interest or right in the Account as security for a loan or other indebtedness if the following conditions are met:

- a) The terms and conditions of the indebtedness are terms and conditions that persons dealing at arm's length with each other would have entered into; and

- b) It can reasonably be considered that one of the main purposes of that use is not to enable a person (other than the Holder) or partnership to benefit from the exemption from tax available under Part I of the Income Tax Act (Canada) of any amount in respect of the Account.

The security can be established, published and revoked only in accordance with the Applicable legislation and by means of a written document or instrument dated and signed by the Holder. The form and content of the security shall be acceptable to the Trustee and shall identify the Account specifically. The Trustee makes no representation and cannot be held responsible in the event of a total or partial invalidity, non-perfection or unenforceability of a security signed by the Holder with respect to the Account.

- 10. Designation of Survivor Holder or of Beneficiary (only in provinces where permitted by law). If permitted by Applicable legislation, the Holder may designate the Survivor as the new Holder of the Account after his or her death. To be designated as such, the survivor must acquire all of the Holder's rights in the Account, including the unconditional right to revoke any beneficiary designation.

If permitted by Applicable legislation, the Holder may designate one or more beneficiaries to receive the proceeds payable under the provisions of the Account.

Any designation of a Survivor Holder or a beneficiary may be made, amended or revoked only in compliance with the Applicable legislation by way of a written document or instrument, dated and signed by the Holder, the form and content of which shall be acceptable to the Trustee, and in particular shall specifically identify the Account.

Any designation, amendment and/or revocation, shall come into force on the date it is received by the Trustee. If more than one designation is received by the Trustee, the Trustee shall consider only the designation, duly signed by the Holder which has the most recent date.

In certain provinces and territories this designation may not be revoked or changed automatically as a result of a future marriage or a marriage breakdown and a new designation may be required. It is the Holder's sole responsibility to get appropriate information regarding this matter and to make the appropriate amendments, as needed.

The Trustee makes no representation and cannot be held responsible for the invalidity of any designation of a Survivor Holder or designation of beneficiary signed by the Holder with respect to the Account.

- 11. Death of Holder. Upon the Holder's death, upon receipt of evidence satisfactory to the Trustee of such death and subject to the Tax Legislation, the Trustee shall dispose of the Assets in the Account, and after deducting any applicable tax, costs of such disposition, fees or any other amounts payable hereunder, the Trustee shall pay in a lump sum the net proceeds of such disposition to the Holder's estate.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in cases permitted by the Tax Legislation, the Trustee may transfer the Assets in the Account to one or more persons entitled thereto.

No such payment or transfer shall be made unless and until the Trustee receives releases and other documents as it may reasonably require.

- 12. Separate Account and Tax Information. The Trustee shall maintain a separate account for the Account and shall furnish to the Holder annually or more frequently, a statement showing the information deemed relevant by the Trustee in its sole discretion.

The Trustee shall provide the Holder and the competent authorities, as the case may be, with information returns, notices and other documents in accordance with the Tax Legislation.

13. Provisions Regarding the Trustee.

- a) Delegation of Powers. The Trustee may delegate to its agents any of its administrative duties or its powers to do specific things, and the delegate may receive all or part of the fees to which the Trustee is entitled hereunder, it being understood, however, that ultimate responsibility for administering the Account shall remain vested in the Trustee.
- b) Withdrawal of Trustee. The Trustee may withdraw as the administrator of the Account upon 90 days' prior notice given to the Holder in the manner set out in Section 14 g) hereof and provided a replacement trustee has accepted the appointment and on condition such replacement is a body corporate resident in Canada duly authorized by the Applicable legislation to act in such capacity.
- c) Fees and Expenses. The Trustee shall be paid the fees and other charges it prescribes from time to time, which may be directly charged against and deducted from the Assets in the Account. The Trustee shall be entitled to charge fees upon the termination of the Account, the transfer or withdrawal of Assets in the Account or any other event which it may reasonably determine. These fees are disclosed to the Holder in accordance with the Applicable legislation.

The Trustee shall be reimbursed by the Holder for all fees, out-of-pocket expenses and costs incurred by it or its agents in connection with the administration of the Account or the production of any tax statements or other documents required under the Tax Legislation.

The reimbursement of any and all taxes, interest or penalties payable may be directly charged against and deducted from the Assets in the Account but only as far as permitted by the Applicable legislation. The Trustee may then, without further notifying the Holder, dispose of Assets in the Account, in whole or in part, on such conditions as it may determine and apply the proceeds of such disposition to the payment. The Trustee shall not be liable for any losses incurred as a result of such disposition.

The Holder shall reimburse the Trustee for any overdraft resulting from the payment of such fees, out-of-pocket expenses and costs within 30 days of the date the Holder is notified thereof. Should the Holder fail to make such reimbursement on time, the Trustee may, without further notifying the Holder, dispose of Assets in the Account, in whole or in part, on such conditions as it may determine and apply the proceeds of such disposition to the payment of such fees, out-of-pocket expenses, costs and overdrafts. The Trustee shall not be liable for any losses incurred as a result of such disposition.

- d) Liability and Hold Harmless. The Holder will at all times indemnify the Trustee and its nominees, agents and correspondents in respect of all taxes, interest, penalties, assessments, expenses, liability, claims and demands resulting from the custody or administration of the Account and will hold them harmless from all of the foregoing, except in the case of the gross negligence or willful omission or misconduct of the Trustee. All such payment must be made within 30 days from the date the Holder is thereby notified. Without limiting the scope of any other provision hereof, neither the Trustee nor any of its nominees, agents or correspondents shall be liable for any loss incurred by the Account or by the Holder, as a result of the acquisition, disposition or retention of any investment acquired at the direction of the Holder, as a result of any payment out of the Account as requested by the Holder, as a result of the refusal to follow instructions that the Trustee, in its sole discretion, considers contrary to any provision hereto or to any Applicable legislation, as a result of force majeure or irresistible force.

- e) Instructions. The Trustee shall be empowered to follow the written instructions received from the Holder or any other person designated in writing by the Holder, whether transmitted by mail, facsimile machine or other electronic means.

14. Miscellaneous Provisions.

- a) Amendments. The Trustee may from time to time, in its sole discretion, amend the terms of the Account (i) to satisfy the requirement of any Applicable legislation, or (ii) by giving 30 days' notice in writing thereof to the Holder, provided, however, that any such amendments shall not disqualify the Account as a tax-free savings account within the meaning of the Tax Legislation.
- b) Evidence. The recording of the date of birth of the Holder on the Application shall constitute sufficient certification of such age, subject to any further evidence which may be required thereof.
- The Trustee reserves the right to require the Holder or any person claiming to be a Beneficiary, as the case may be, to provide, at the appropriate time and at their own expense, satisfactory proof of age, of the survival or death of the Holder and of their title or entitlement as a Beneficiary.
- c) Cash. All the sums of money payable hereunder shall be payable in money which is legal tender in Canada.
- d) Binding. The terms and conditions hereof will be binding upon the Holder's heirs and legal personal representatives and upon any successors and assigns of the Trustee.
- e) Declaration of Non-Residence. The Holder is required to and undertakes to notify the Trustee immediately if he or she is or becomes a non-resident of Canada.
- f) Interpretation. Wherever the context so requires, a word used in the masculine gender shall include the feminine or neuter and vice versa, and the singular number shall include the plural and vice versa.
- g) Notices. Any notice to the Trustee hereunder shall be validly given if delivered or mailed postage prepaid to the address of the Agent appearing on the Application or to any other address which the Trustee may from time to time specify in writing, and it shall be effective only on the day that such notice was actually delivered or received by the Trustee. Any notice, statement or receipt given by the Trustee to the Holder or any person authorized to receive notice under the Account shall be validly given if mailed postage prepaid to the address recorded in the books of the Trustee with respect to the Account, and any notice, statement or receipt so mailed shall be deemed to have been given five days after the day of mailing. Any written instruction, notice or information communicated to the Trustee will be considered valid only if it is in a form deemed satisfactory by the Trustee.
- h) Applicable legislation. The Account shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws and regulations applicable in the province in which the Holder resides, as shown in the Application, and with the Tax Legislation. The Account shall not in any way constitute a trust within the meaning of the Civil Code of Québec. Given the special nature hereof and the administrative rules created hereby, the rules of Title VII of Book IV of the Civil Code of Québec relating to the administration of the property of others shall not apply to the Trustee.

Thank you for choosing National Bank Direct Brokerage's (a division of National Bank Financial Inc.) InvestCube Program. This agreement describes your rights as a participant in the Program, and provides information about how the Program works. This agreement is in addition to all other agreements governing the account(s) you maintain with us. The provisions of the Cash Account Agreement are hereby incorporated by reference.

Please read it carefully and discuss any questions you may have with a NBDB representative.

Because of fluctuations in the value of the assets held in your Account, their percentage weighting will vary from time to time in relation to their initial allocation. The purpose of the Program is to automatically and regularly rebalance the assets in your Account – essentially cash and securities issued by a limited number of exchange traded funds – back to their target allocation.

Under the Program, once you have purchased the exchange traded fund securities on which the Program is based, NBDB will rebalance the assets in your Account in accordance with the standing instructions detailed below. By signing this agreement, you are agreeing to the following terms and conditions.

1. Participation in program

You confirm that you agree to participate in the Program and authorize NBDB to deal with the assets in your Account in accordance with the standing instructions detailed herein, as well as applicable law and regulations. You understand and agree that this allows NBDB, in your name, to purchase, sell, exchange, convert and negotiate securities and carry out other investments allowed in respect of your Account for the assets you have selected and hold in your Account, and grants NBDB the authority to act in your name in any manner necessary or useful to further these standing instructions regarding the assets in your Account.

2. No advice

You confirm that you have determined your own investment objectives for your Account, and that you have chosen to invest in the securities purchased to be held in your Account, without any investment advice from NBDB. You understand that the Program does not include any investment advice, does not include any portfolio management, and does not afford NBDB with any discretion over the assets held in your Account. You confirm that you are responsible for determining the investments that are in your best interest to meet your financial needs. NBDB encourages you to use available market data and investment tools to make your own determinations in this regard.

3. Minimum investment and account balance

The minimum initial investment and minimum balance for your Account is set at $10,000 in the currency of the account. You agree to maintain the required minimum balance in your Account and acknowledge that this balance may vary from time to time due to market fluctuations. If the balance of your Account falls below the minimum, NBDB may ask you to increase the value of your investment. In such a case, you will be notified by mail or by telephone that the balance of your Account is below the required minimum. You will then have thirty (30) days to make up the shortfall. Following the expiration of this period, NBDB may, at its discretion and without further notice, cease rebalancing your Account under the Program.

4. Target allocation

The Program, through regular Rebalancing, aims to reflect the percentage weighting representing the target allocation (set forth in Schedule A hereto) as closely as possible in your Account. However, you understand and agree that because of regular fluctuations in the value of securities, and considering the minimum transaction threshold established in Article 9 of the Agreement, there can be no assurance that the target allocation shall be exactly maintained, nor that the assets held in your Account shall at any time be exactly equal to the target allocation. Similarly, you understand and agree that NBDB does not and cannot guarantee investment performance results in respect of the assets held in your Account, and you confirm that you have not received any verbal or written statement, representation or guarantee in respect of performance results.

5. Trading restrictions & standing instructions

Since the Program is based on your investment in specific exchange-traded fund securities, so long as you are a participant in the Program, you will not be able to give investment orders (including an order to buy, sell or refrain from buying or selling securities) in respect of your Account, other than for the initial purchase or as specified in this agreement.

6. Rebalancing and rebalancing notification

You hereby give NBDB authorization and instructions to proceed with the automatic rebalancing of the assets held in your account by carrying out buy and/or sell orders on (or around) March 23rd and on (or around) September 23rd each year to restore the targeted allocation of your portfolio. In addition to the automatic rebalancing, you also give NBDB authorization and instructions to proceed with a monthly rebalancing when the percentage weighting of at least one of the asset classes held in your account varies by more than 20% (relative deviation) from the targeted allocation. The monthly rebalancing will take place, if necessary, on (or around) the 23rd day of the month.

NBDB will notify you through the secure messaging application of its transactional website 72 hours before a rebalancing occurs. If you do not want your portfolio to undergo a rebalancing, you must inform NBDB of your choice within 48 hours of receiving the notification. You are responsible for taking note of the rebalancing notifications by regularly logging on to your account through our secure website. NBDB reserves the right to cancel the InvestCube service after three rebalancing refusals on your part.

7. Foreign currency conversion and currency risk

Any purchase of exchange traded funds traded on the US market or income paid by the said fund involves a currency conversion and can incur conversion costs. Some ETFs are hedged against foreign exchange risk related to the underlying investments made in a currency other than that of the fund. Information on currency hedging is available in public disclosure documents of the concerned funds.

8. Distributions

The dividend and interest distributions paid by the securities held in your Account will accumulate in cash until the date of the next regular rebalancing. You hereby authorize and instruct NBDB to automatically apply such amounts to the purchase of additional securities, as part of the rebalancing of the securities in your Account to the target allocation.

9. Additional investments, withdrawals & changes

Additional cash investments to, and withdrawals from, your Account are permitted at any time, subject to any applicable frequent withdrawal fees. Your selection of the target allocation applicable to your Account, as well as the selection of securities, can be changed at any time, subject to any applicable frequent change fees. Transaction requests for additional investments and withdrawals and changes to your target allocation must be placed exclusively through NBDB's telephone line at 1-800-363-3511 or 514-866-6755. You hereby authorize and instruct NBDB to automatically apply any new amount invested in your Account to the purchase of additional securities, according to the target allocation applicable to your Account (subject to any minimum transaction threshold reasonably applied by NBDB from time to time). You hereby authorize and instruct NBDB to fund any withdrawal request by the sale of securities held in your Account, pro-rata, to maintain the target allocation. No transaction will be executed for an amount less than $125 in the currency of the account or the amount representing the price of a unit of the exchange-traded fund, whichever is the greater.

10. Transaction schedule

NBDB will process transaction requests as soon as practicable, and will generally attempt to process them on the next business day if they are received prior to 4 p.m. (E.S.T.). The exact transaction schedule shall be determined by NBDB in its sole discretion, acting reasonably. You understand and agree that transaction requests (including, without limitation, initial and subsequent investments, withdrawals and changes) are subject to processing delays which may last up to 7 business days (or longer in exceptional circumstances), and sums transferred to NBDB may not be credited to your Account or otherwise available to you during such processing. NBDB reserves the right to impose a longer waiting period during which such sums may not be available for additional investment or withdrawal, or to refuse certain additional investments or changes to your Account. There may be significant lag time between the moment NBDB processes a transaction request and the moment that corresponding transaction orders are completed. NBDB may aggregate orders and execute orders in multiple parts, in which case pricing will be the average price per security. NBDB cannot be held responsible for any losses or other consequences resulting from the timing of transaction orders.

11. Program Fees

Program Fees at an annual rate of a maximum of 0.50% of the value of the assets held in your Account, computed quarterly in arrears based on the three (3) preceding months' values, will be due and payable to NBDB on a quarterly basis, along with any applicable sales taxes. They are payable in the currency of the account. Program Fees include the cost of all transactions required to rebalance the assets held in your Account. These fees will be pro-rated to the number of days in the calendar quarter based on the annual rate specified above for any participation in the Program that does not encompass a complete calendar quarter.

12. Other fees

Should you change your selection of the target allocation applicable to your Account or the selection of securities held in your Account more than once per calendar year or should you withdraw from your Account more than twice per calendar year, frequent change fees or frequent withdrawal fees could apply. These fees are charged in the currency of the account and are mentioned on NBDB's website at <https://nbdb.ca/accounts/investcube/>. Unless otherwise provided in this agreement, your Account will remain subject to the fees indicated on our website at <https://nbdb.ca/accounts/investcube/>.

13. Payment of fees

You hereby authorize and instruct NBDB to place sale orders for assets held in your Account in the amounts required to pay any applicable fees and to debit your Account accordingly on a quarterly basis.

14. Fund fees

Each of the funds held in your account also charges its own fees. Details regarding the fees and expenses associated with the funds held in your account are available in the funds' public disclosure documents.

15. Tax impact

There may be a tax impact to you resulting from the purchase and sale of securities in your Account. If your Account is not part of a registered retirement savings plan or similar tax deferred plan, you may realize taxable capital gains or deductible capital losses at the time of selling securities in your Account.

16. Interest on cash balance

Positive (credit) cash balances in your Account denominated in Canadian dollars shall earn interest at a rate equivalent to National Bank of Canada's prime rate minus 2.25%. Interest is calculated based on the closing daily credit balance in your account, and is posted to your account monthly. Interest shall not accrue or be paid if the amount to be paid is less than $5. No interest is payable for positive (credit) cash balances of your Account denominated in US dollars.

17. Changes to the agreement

NBDB reserves the right, upon sixty (60) days' prior written notice of amendment to you, to modify the terms of this agreement, including by changing the variation threshold to rebalance your Account, the target allocation of your Account, the securities held in your Account as part of the Program, or the Program Fees. The amended agreement will enter into force upon expiry of the notice period, or at any later date specified in the notice of amendment, unless you notify NBDB of your objection to such changes prior to the end of the notice period. Following receipt by NBDB of any such objection notice from you, this agreement will automatically be terminated; you may then continue to hold the securities held in your Account, but they will cease to be rebalanced and will cease to be part of the Program. Otherwise, upon expiry of the notice period, you hereby authorize and instruct NBDB to place transaction orders to reflect the changes in accordance with the information provided in the notice of amendment.

18. Termination

This agreement will automatically terminate in the case of death, disability or incapacity, effective upon NBDB's receipt of written notice (and sufficient evidence, if required by NBDB) of any of those occurrences. You may terminate this agreement at any time by calling NBDB at 1-800-363-3511 or 514-866-6755 to give them notice of termination; termination will be effective upon processing of your notice by NBDB, which should be done promptly after your call. NBDB may terminate this agreement at any time upon sixty (60) days' prior written notice mailed to your address on our records. Termination of this agreement will not affect your or our respective rights or obligations which arose prior to termination. After termination of this agreement, NBDB will no longer rebalance the assets held in your Account.

19. Interpretation

In case of any conflict between this agreement and the Cash Account Agreement, the provisions of this agreement shall prevail.

By signing below, you confirm that you have read, understood and that you agree to be bound by this agreement. In addition, you confirm that you authorize and instruct NBDB to rebalance the assets in your account to their target allocation in compliance with this agreement. You also acknowledge and accept that the rebalancing notifications will be transmitted to you through the secure messaging application of NBDB's transactional website.
